

Grabbing their stew before the auction started were Robin and Russell Thomas. They were just two of the many who helped support the Eagle Lake Volunteer Fire Department by enjoying a hot bowl of stew for dinner.

Trying to satisfy their sweet tooth at the Bakery Booth were Father Steve and Rosie Winkler as Anna Mae Higgins carefully counts out their change.

Thank troops, veterans

With thousands of troops deployed overseas and thousands more readying for deployment, The American Legion has re-launched a free, easy way to thank them for their service on the eve of Veterans Day, Nov. 11.

The electronic greeting cards are also ideal to thank all veterans, of all generations, who have served in the U.S. armed forces.

"Veterans and those serving in the military services today need to see that there are friends and family members who are proud of their sacrifices for America," John Brieden, national commander of The American Legion said.

Study Club says thank you, Eagle Lake

By Betty Wilcox

The Eagle Lake Study Club would like to express thanks to all who attended the 24th annual auction.

This auction is one of the main supporters of the David and Eula Wintermann Library. In these busy days of tight economic times, we are proud to announce the success of the night.

The silent auction, bake sale and the main auction were great successes. The approximate total for the evening was $19,000. This takes the work of many Study Club members for many weeks. But, without the donations of local merchants and individuals, our goals could not be reached.

More than happy to help show this riding tractor was Tallon Canaris, son of Peter and Kari.

moving auction items and setting up. Then there is the tearing down and clean up.

No auction can be a success without its auctioneer. Joe Herbert and Candy McCreary are the best and donate their services each year.

Then there are our spotters who taunt and tease to get the highest bid. Also, our teenage display assistants who demonstrate and show all the various items.

Every year, one of our biggest supporters is The Eagle Lake Headlight. Editor Jeannine Fearing and Photographer Carol Cardenas have gone the second mile with their help. The coverage and photos added to the success of the evening.

To everyone who was involved in any way... Thank You. The last Thank You goes to Father Eddie Winkler and the Parish of the Nativity for the use of Didner Hall.

Spotters and helpers for this year's Study Club Auction were, in front, from left, Theresa Henry, Kristi Johnson and Kelly Konescheck. In back are spotters Sidney Struss, Louis Schorlemmer, Martin Herman, Robby Cook and Lonnie Sommerlatte and Auctioneer Joe Herbert McCreary.
