

Raiders

Ed Thomas, Jasmine Smith, Robert Salinas and freshman Brian Williams all had four tackles each.

The Raiders coaching staff named Michael Spears as the overall Player of the Game. Spears had five carries for 118 yards and two touchdowns rushing. He also added one catch for 58 yards and one touchdown. Then, for good measure, he had a fumble recovery and his state-leading 11th interception.

Offensive Players of the Game went to offensive guard Chad Mahalite and fullback Charles Huffman. Mahalite graded outstanding in his blocking duties. Huffman powered his way to 195 yards and two touchdowns on only 13 carries, adding two big tackles on special teams.

Defensive honors went to Donovan King and his 10 tackles. King was in Devine's backfield all during the game. He will certainly gain lots of attention with the all-state voters once the season ends.

Special Teams Players of the Week went to sophomore Robert Salinas and senior Marshall Peterson. Both put out some tremendous hustle and Salinas had a huge hit on Devine's best runner.

Congrats, Raiders. Beat the Tarpons!

team. They have great individual speed and three guys who can fly.

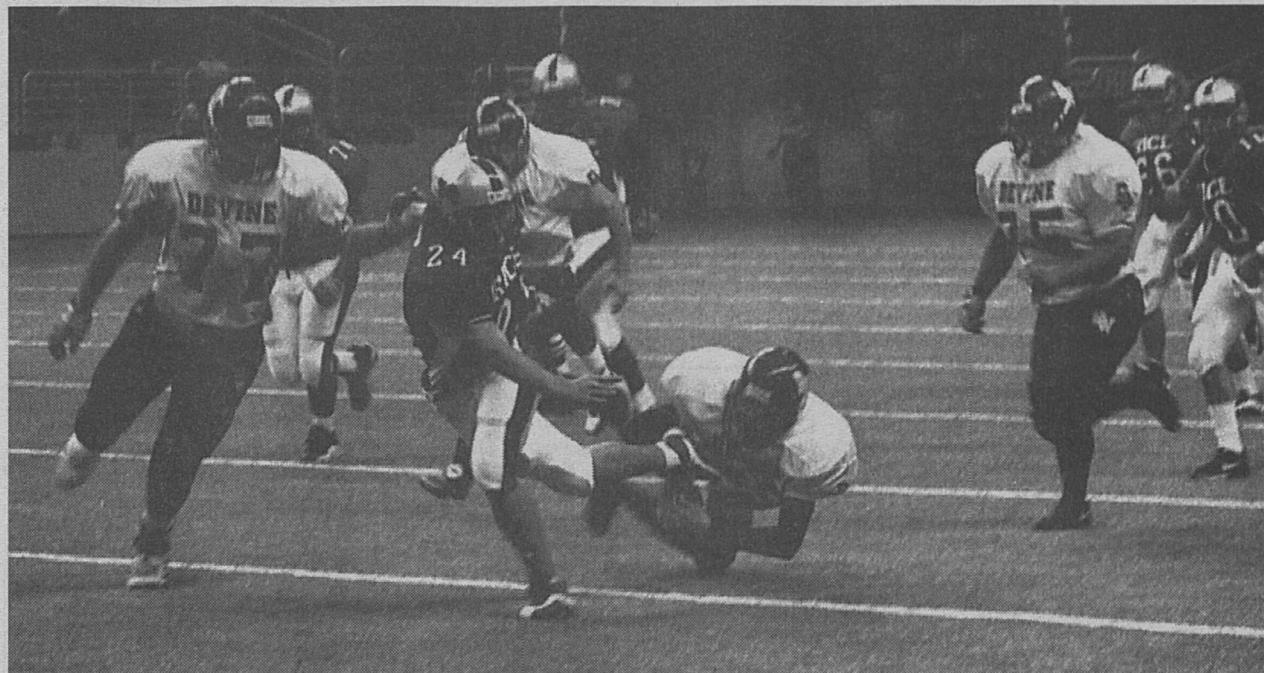

"Iracheta (#21) was the 2002 state champ in the 400-meter dash (48.3). Arevalo (#17) ran a 10.7 last year in the 100 at regionals, and their fullback and quarterback are both very quick.

"And, they'll bring 6,000 plus fans and they're very noisy. I think our guys will be up to the challenge.

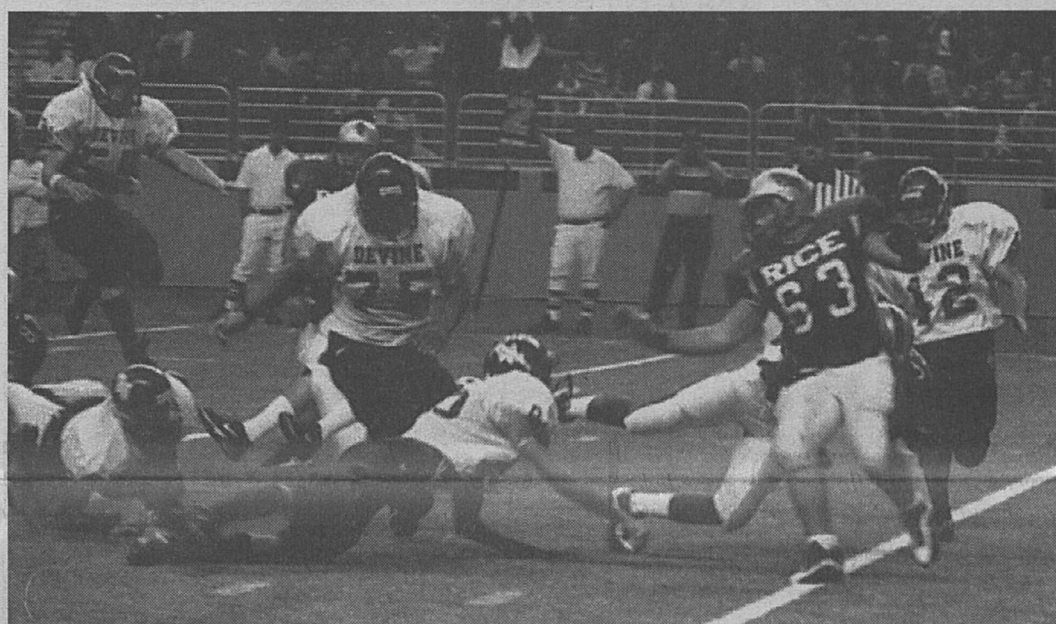

"We're excited about playing December football," he concluded.

Rice senior Derland Sanford, #5, scores the second of the Raiders' touchdowns Saturday as a teammate (looks like it could be #62, Chad Mahalite) looks back to see how close the Devine defense is getting.

Sophomore Zach Perry, #24, picked up 23 yards on this run late in the game. Unfortunately, it was all for naught as the refs call Rice for illegal procedure (motion).

Rice junior Jonathan Thomas (those are his legs sticking out from behind #63, Jess Little) capped off Rice's scoring Saturday with a hard-fought 8-yard run to make the score 42-0.

ON DENTAL ANXIETY

If you are apprehensive or, to put it bluntly - scared - when you visit the dentist, you shouldn't have to feel embarrassed by it or have to apologize. As the patient, you have the right to be anxious. As the dentist, it's my responsibility to help you deal with it.

You can make your day at the dentist more pleasurable by bringing your Walkman with you. Putting on ear phones and tuning in your favorite music has a relaxing effect.

Many people find their dental appointments more enjoyable by using nitrous oxide. Also called "sweet air" or "laughing gas" (it really doesn't make you laugh), it can help you relax. The gas is administered through a loose-fitting nosepiece that usually stays on during the procedure. It can give a light-hearted feeling that, for most people, is very relaxing. It's administered with oxygen. The effect wears off a few minutes after breathing oxygen alone.

Start to build rapport with the dentist by discussing your fears without embarrassment.

Presented as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of JOHN B. MYRES, D.D.S., 700 S. McCarty Avenue, Eagle Lake, 234-3525.
