Welcome The Prince of Peace

By Revs. Joe and Mercy Fling, Pastors, Living Hope Church

The great Messianic prophet Isaiah wrote three thousand years ago, "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, the everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end." (Isaiah 9:6-7a)

It is the season of Christmas that we celebrate the coming of the child that God sent, the Son that God gave. God gave of Himself. He gave the best He had. He gave all that He had. Why? Because He loved His special creation, man so much. John 3:16 tells us that God's gift of his Son to us, was that we might, through believing in Him, have life everlasting.

This year, we feel that pain and the heartache of our community at this season of hope and joy. Families hurt. People hurt. In this season we are reminded not only of the great need in the word, right here at home, but are at the same time reminded of the great provision, which God made for our salvation. God told Moses at the burning bush, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people. I have heard their cry. I have come to deliver them." When Jesus stood in Nazareth, his home synagogue and read, he said, "I have come to mend the broken hearted, to deliver the captive, to give sight to the blind, and to declare the time of God's acceptance." God loves you. God is for you.

God had made a great way for you. A way for you to come out of darkness, out of despair, out of the trouble that you may feel that you are in.

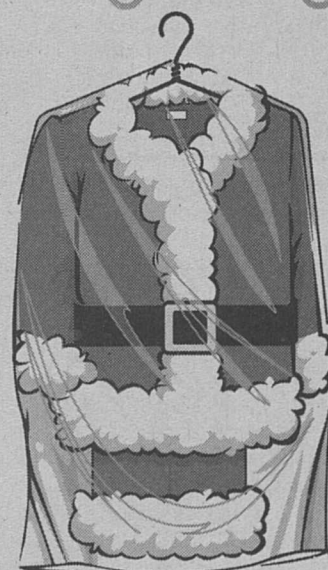

That way is Jesus Christ. He is the Prince of Peace. He makes peace. So the angels said at his birth in Bethlehem, "Peace on Earth, goodwill to men."

Is your world in trouble this Christmas? Is there conflict in the home? With the children? Within your own heart and soul? Corrie Ten Boom the late Christian writer who survived a Nazi slave labor camp often said, "No pit is too deep that God is not there." She was speaking from personal experience. Let Jesus the Prince of Peace Give you peace. Jesus comes into a situation and brings peace. He brings healing to those who are sick. He brings freedom to those that are bound.

Jesus hears our cries. Jesus sees our afflictions. Jesus comes to save. He brings peace. He brings deliverance. He brings freedom. Let there be peace on earth. Let Jesus give that peace. When all of our efforts to make things right fail, Let Jesus make it right. When all of our efforts to make peace come to nothing, Let Jesus give peace. It is his specialty. He is the Prince of Peace.

From the family of believers at Living Hope Church, we pray peace for the community of Eagle Lake. We pray that Jesus bring you peace. Peace from suffering. Peace from oppression. Peace from conflict. Peace within yourself. We pray that the Prince of Peace rule in our hearts and in our lives. Have a blessed Christmas season and New Year of Peace, Love and Joy.
