Harry Johnson

October 3, 1921 – September 26, 2004

Harry Johnson departed this life Sunday, September 26, 2004 under the caring and watchful eyes of the staff at River Oaks Nursing Home.

He was born October 3, 1921 to Leslie and Josephine Johnson in the Shaws Bend Community near Columbus.

Harry grew up and attended school in the community of his birth. He accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior as a youth through the ministry of a Circuit Methodist preacher and was baptized in the Colorado River. Harry later became an active member of Columbus First Church of the Nazarene.

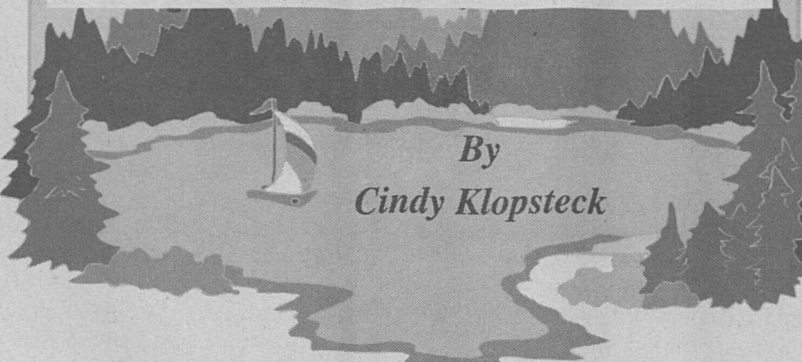

Preceded in death by his parents; three sisters, Ollie Nelson, Alice Miller and Viola Woods; two brothers, Leslie Jr., and Douglas Johnson; and a son, Harry J. Johnson, PFC Army; he leaves to mourn is passing, a friends, Aubrey Carter; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, September 29 at 11 a.m. from Columbus First Church of the Nazarene in Columbus with Rev. Michael Thompson, pastor, officiating. Interment followed in Shaws Bend Cemetery. Final arrangements were entrusted to Ben Davis Funeral Home in Columbus.

Pallbearers were relatives and friends. Honorary pallbearers were nephews.

Sympathy is extended to the family in their loss.

Would we all agree? ABSOLUTELY.

We are agreeing with the ten most irritating clichés recently shared by something called the Plain English Campaign — AWESOME! Actually, most people would probably also agree we should get back to using good, old “plain” English in our everyday language.

The ten (with, of course, some personal comments I’m ready with 24/7):

•ABSOLUTELY

•AWESOME

•AT THIS MOMENT IN TIME - Used often in political statements, such as, “At this moment in time our economy is...our social security fund is...”

The trouble is... why don’t politicians actually complete these kinds of sentences with something we understand.

•AT THE END OF THE DAY

•ADDRESS THE ISSUE-Also politically used- but why don’t our

UHV Center leader institute series continues

As our nation confronts difficult economic times, nonprofit organizations must compete more aggressively for public and private support.

In response to this challenge, the University of Houston-Victoria (UHV) Center for Nonprofit Leadership will continue the 2004 Leadership Institute Series Thursday, Oct. 14 and Friday, Oct. 15 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. with “Grassroots Fundraising.” The workshop will be held in the UHV University Center Multi Purpose Room, 3007 N. Ben Wilson.

The Grassroots Institute for Fundraising Training (GIFT) will facilitate the workshop. Sonya Garcia Ulibarri, GIFT Executive Director, and Russell D. Roybal, GIFT Senior Consultant, will help participants understand the strategies and components of grassroots fundraising. Workshop participants also will have the opportunity to develop an outline for a fundraising plan that addresses their organizational needs.

“Grassroots Fundraising” will continue the 2004 Leadership Institute Series’ commitment to addressing participants’ organizational concerns for funding and sustainability by strengthening their marketing and fundraising skills. Additionally, participants will earn 1.4 continuing education credits for the workshop. Individuals can register early for $139 through Monday, Oct. 11. The Alcoa Foundation and The Fondren Foundation generously support the 2004 Leadership Institute Series.

Harvest Ball set for Saturday, Oct. 16

Mark your calendar the Rice Medical Center Harvest Ball is just around the corner.

Saturday, October 16 the Employee Volunteers will one again set the stage for an elegant evening at the Eagle Lake Community Center.

This year’s theme is Mardi Gras, so dress festive.

Ticket purchase is $30 per person and includes a steak dinner, open drink bar, music by Darrell Appelt and a great silent auction.

This is the ninth annual Harvest Ball sponsored by the Employee Volunteers of RICE MEDICAL CENTER. The Volunteers have been serving the hospital for eleven years.

The volunteers share a vision to make our community hospital a great place. During the past years, the group has raised funds for purchasing hospital furniture, stretchers, nurse call system, hospital signage, copy machine, vacuum cleaner, remodeled rooms, and many other items large and small. The Volunteers also give back to the community by offering Rice High School scholarships for college.

The honoree of the Harvest Ball will be State Representative Robert “Robby” Cook. A native to Eagle Lake, he has proved to be genuinely interested in our rural community by supporting many local organizations that reflect growth, conservation, and humanitarian projects.

Robby also takes these small town standards to Austin. Representative Cook has served on numerous legislative committees since 1996 that provide regulations for land, water resources, and agricultural development in Colorado and surrounding counties.

Many of you know Robby and it would be great to come out and support him during this special tribute to his life work.
