Columbus Christian Women

A large group of area women met at Glidden Baptist Church, October 7, the regular meeting of the Columbus Christian Women (CCW). Meetings are held on the first Thursday of each month.

Jo Churchill, president, presided over the meeting. Jo Carol Besch opened with prayer followed by recognition of new members, visitors and October birthdays. Mary Kay Heffley led the theme song "One Spirit, One Church". Virgie Williamson presented the devotional - "Father's Love Letter" - an inspirational reading. Joyce Gordy reported the financial statement.

Announcements were as follows: Sister Joyce Jilek - Habitat for Humanity project in Weimar still not off the ground; Mary Lynn Skinner - Reminding the group of the deadline for articles honoring our Veterans; Jo Churchill - Asked for volunteers to hostess meetings for 2005, parties interested in being officers or working on committees to sign up.

Riana Jamison - Handed out tickets to sell for the Youth and Family Services Luncheon/Style Show at The Falls on Nov. 6. Tickets may be purchased from members of CCW for $20. There are five businesses contributing to the style shows runway along with tables set up for purchasing accessories. There will be musical entertainment by Robert Sanders, door prizes, silent auction and a bucket raffle.

Estelle Mostyn - Recapped and finalized dates, deadlines and other information on the CCW's fund raising project to help support Youth and Family Services. "Trees of Lights" With several other communities participating this year you will have a choice of decorated Christmas trees to choose from.

Sharon Johnson, Shirley Barfield, Laura Hastedt, Randa Simmons, Mary Ordner and Dorothy Borak won door prizes. The Mary Richter angel painting went to Fran Gillen.

Tray favors with a fall theme were made for all Columbus care facilities.

Join us for our next meeting November 4, at 9:30 a.m. at St. John's Episcopal Church.

The Alpha Delta Phi (ADP) started their sorority year by gathering at Broyle's Lake on Sept. 29. The festivities at Roxanne's Cabana included a meet and greet of our new pledges and a game where members had to match "how they met their spouse" statements with the correct sorority sister. (For those of you single out there, try the Emotions dances, the rodeo and Laundromats). The big winner of the evening was Lesley Carey.

Last year's scrapbook, beautifully created by Laura Myres, was presented to President Anna Gertson. Members indulged in homemade cobbler and Blue Bell Ice Cream.

Our first official meeting was Sept. 7 at the home of Roxanne Schindler. The program for the evening consisted of familiarizing the new pledges with responsibilities of our sorority, duties of the officers and community outreach projects of the club.

ADP welcomes to our sorority the 2004-05 new pledges, Lisa Holloway, Robyn Machac, Jessica Thacker and Celie Thomson.

Roxanne provided a delightful meal consisting of enchilada soup, chips and dip and an earthquake cake.

ADP met Sept. 20 at the home of Becky Anderson. The evening's program was an introduction to special education and the testing involved to determine eligibility with Meredith Nethery presenting.

Members were asked of they would like to have their IQ tested. There were no takers.

Members munched on finger foods and cookies.

The first social of our sorority year was highly enjoyable. Members met at The Farris and joined together for Casino Night sponsored by Main Street. The sisters were throwing dice, letting it ride and having a great time all evening. We look forward to making this an annual event, kudos to Main Street and The Farris.

Civic Garden Club

By Patty Holloway

During the September meeting of the Eagle Lake Civic Garden Club the membership voted to re-instate the Yard of the Month Award.

The club is having a new sign made and each month the awards committee or a committee member will drive through town and try to decide in which yard to "plant" this new sign. Many times this is a difficult decision to make because there are many lovely yards in our town.

There is one change in the award process and the change is that garden club members (with the exception of the executive board) will be eligible to receive the award along with the general townspeople.

This is a fun time of the year to work in or decorate your yard what with the availability of all the pumpkins, scarecrows and various other fall decorations. You can carry out a Halloween theme for the month of October and with a few changes keep most of your fall decorations in place through the month of November just by removing the ghosts, witches, etc. at the end of October.

Then it will be time to start thinking about Christmas decorations. The Garden Club will have an exciting announcement to make about Christmas decorating. More about that next month.

If the sign gets "planted" in your yard you will be contacted so that we may take your picture and obtain a brief interview with you about your life in Eagle Lake and then this will be printed in the Headlight.

The Garden Club and Friends of Main Street have joined together for a fund raising project. For the year 2003 the Cat's Meow Wooden Village/Christmas ornament was a limited edition replica of the town square bandstand and for the year 2004 it will be a limited edition replica of the old Eagle Lake High School Building. You may contact one of the Friends of Main Street members to place your order(s) for this heirloom of the future Christmas ornament.

THE MARINE...

a lean mean fighting machine. But Marines don't live in uniform, and they aren't always holding a smoking weapon.

Have you ever seen a Marine hug his wife just before a long deployment?

Have you ever seen a Marine swing his small child high in the air as he gazes upon the child's face for the first time?

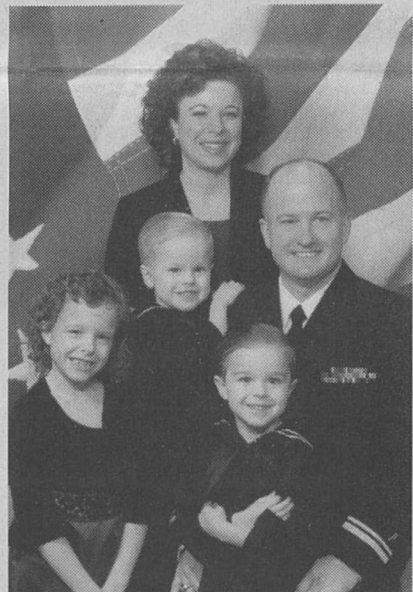

There are no words to describe the sight, sounds, and emotions of a homecoming or the feeling of being on American soil again.

At the beach, I observed a family desperately trying to squeeze in every moment before an Iraqi deployment.

Not a Marine, but a Daddy spent hours in the surf with his boys. A husband, not a Marine, teased his wife while holding tightly to her hand. And a son, not a Marine, brought tears to his mother's eyes and pride in his father's voice. Today, he is not a Marine - simply a man trying not to check off his mental list of "last time for..."

Remember that beneath the uniform of every Marine there is a man - living, laughing, and loving. As each one puts his life on the line to ensure our freedom: Think and Thank! You sleep easy tonight because Marines are on duty.

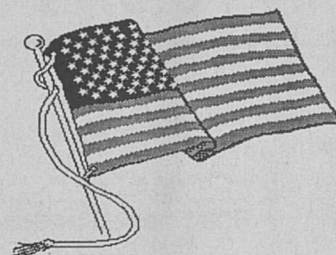

Lt. Richard H. Wiese is one such Marine turned Navy Chaplain. He is presently serving with the 3rd Expeditionary Strike Group in the Najaf area. In a rare e-mail to his wife, Lt. Wiese says, "We are having nightly Bible studies, two Sunday services, and a Wednesday evening service.

There have been more Marines come to know Christ as their personal Saviour. I preached a message on thankfulness, which spoke to many hearts.

It's easy to be unthankful when you lack many conveniences and we have not seen our families for three months and there is no end in sight.

Please pray for the families and Marines who have lost comrades. "FREEDOM IS NOT FREE!"

Please keep his safety as well as that of his men in your prayers. Also,
