CARDS OF THANKS

- I will be forever grateful to so many people for so much during my illness —
1. My family who helped so much!
 2. Rice Medical Center — Dr. Holloway, Dr. Cantu and the whole staff.
 3. Rice Medical Clinic — Dr. Russell Thomas and staff.
 4. First Baptist Church — Chris Thacker, pastor — my Sunday School members and church members for their prayers, visits, food, phone calls and their caring for me.
 5. My caring neighbors for seeing that I had a lot of help with everything I needed.
 6. For Eagle Lake Drugstore and Glenda Blair for delivering my prescriptions to my home when I needed them.
 7. For Girling Home Healthcare of Wharton for visiting my home three times a week to check my vital signs.
 8. My friends — I didn't know I had so many!

God bless you all...
Ruth Stein

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You

There are no words that could express the gratitude that we feel for the calls, visits and prayers received in our time of bereavement. Special thanks to the Eagle Lake Post Office and the Fields Family. We ask that you keep us in your daily prayers.

luncheon will raise money for the agency, which in itself is enough reason to attend. However, she goes on, we believe that the gathering will also be a lovely way to spend a fall Saturday with a delicious meal, being prepared by The Falls, informal modeling of the latest Fall/Winter and Holiday fashions by Molly's Melange of Schulenburg, The Style Shop of Columbus, Beka's and Cottage Gatherings of La Grange.

In addition to the fashions, there will be some exciting silent auction items and a bucket raffle. She hints at the extent of the festivities by noting accomplished musician, Robert Sanders, will perform during the luncheon.

Guests will have the opportunity to purchase unique gifts and decorative items from vendors all day long. The doors will open at 10 a.m. with time to shop before lunch and the Fashion Show and remain open until 4 p.m. to give everyone a chance to shop from the vendors that will be present.

Riana also notes that support to assure the financial success of the fundraising endeavor has been made by the following corporations and individuals: Black Creek Drilling; Bobby Walla; Columbus Butane; Columbus Country Ford; Columbus Plumbing; First State Bank, Columbus; Gibson Muffler; Hill Bank & Trust; Roasters; TD Landscape; Theut Glass;

All Souls Day service set for Nov. 2

All Souls Day Services, will be held Tuesday Nov. 2 at 5:15 p.m., bilingual evening prayer, at Nativity Cemetery at 545 S. Austin Rd., and Lakeside Cemetery. The community is invited.

E.H. Henry Scholarship fundraiser is Nov. 6

Attention! Please come and go with us! E.H. Henry Scholarship Fund walk-a-thon, bike-a-thon, trike-a-thon and scooter-a-thon will be held Saturday, Nov. 6 at 7 a.m. starting at White Cloud Baptist Church (WCBC) going to the City Park and return back to WCBC (five miles). Price is $1 per mile. Donations are accepted. For more information contact Jessie Banks Mosley at 758-3515, Raphael Harrison at 758-3000 or Gloria Boutte at 234-2766. First place winners in each event will receive a prize.

and Trey Wiese. Many others have made discounts available on materials and donations of time and talent to make this possible.

The event will be a kick off for the annual "Trees of Light" campaign, a Yuletide for Youth project, also benefiting YFS. This year La Grange Pilot Club and Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce join the CCWO by decorating three Christmas trees, which will be unveiled at the luncheon.

Tickets for the luncheon will be sold in Columbus at the Style Shop; Youth and Family Services office located at 1336 Fannin, in La Grange at Cozy Video, Beka's and Cottage Gatherings; in Schulenburg at Molly's Melange and in Eagle Lake at Creative Expressions.

YFS is a non-profit agency dedicated to promoting positive and healthy individuals and families.

Its programs include: counseling for substance abuse and family issues. The YFS mission is to interact where kids are at risk or families have become dysfunctional. The includes substance abuse counseling in the schools and workplace — both preventive and to address an existing problem; emergency response to law enforcement and parole agencies; work within the boot camp and jails extending to the families affected by an incarcerated relative, etc.

These type of fund-raising activities, along with important foundation grants have enabled the group to purchase their headquarters building located at 1336 Fannin in Columbus, Texas. However, the support by citizens and groups in the communities YFS operates is critical to the availability of these important services to families in the area.

YFS serves communities in Austin, Colorado, Fayette, Lavaca and Lee Counties.
