4 CARD OF THANKS

Rice CISD would like to publicly express our gratitude to the Department of Public Safety, the Eagle Lake Volunteer Fire Department, the Garwood Volunteer Fire Department, the Colorado County Sheriff's Department, the Colorado County Emergency Medical Service, the Columbus Independent School District, the Rice Area Ministerial Alliance, and those individuals that offered or rendered aid for their assistance and the professionalism displayed during and after the recent tragedy that took the lives of four of our students. Nothing can be done or said to lessen the loss that the families or this district has experienced. It does, however, give us greater comfort to know that in times of crisis quality organizations and outstanding individuals exist among us to step in and take control of horrendous situations.

Michael Lanier, Superintendent of Rice CISD

Patricia Ann Ruiz and Jeremiah D. Cooper In regards concerning the passing of our granddaughter and great-grandson, we, the Ruiz family wish to extend our thanks and gratitude. Thank you for the flowers, food, donations, and for keeping our family in your prayers as we struggle to get through our time of sorrow. Also, thanks to Father Eddie, and Dulany Funeral Home. It's overwhelming to see the community pull together and comfort each other when tragedy occurs. We are moved beyond words to express our feelings for the gracious actions you have shown us. So to you, the wonderful citizens of Eagle Lake, we Thank You.

The Ruiz Family

To all of our family and friends: No words can explain how thankful we are for you at this time in our lives. Thank you for reaching out to us in our time of need. Special thanks to Little David, The Vine of the Lord Church, Dulany Funeral Home, all of the Diversitech Company employees, LCRA and the Eagle Lake Police Department. We can see that Heather was loved by all those who stretched out their hands to comfort us.

Bruno and Brenda Moreida and Family

The family of Patty Ruiz and her infant son, Baby J. Cooper, want to offer our thanks to the community for your heartfelt sympathy during the recent sad and painful days. Thank you to each person who sent flowers, food and other physical support. Thank you for your gifts to the memorial fund. Thank you for your prayers and spiritual support. The kindness and thoughtfulness of each person has helped to make these days of unspeakable loss bearable. God bless you all.

John and Irene Cordova and Family

The Family of Robin Aguilar would like to thank everyone who looked into their hearts and helped us through donations, and in many other ways. If I were to mention everybody's name it would take a whole page. Thank you to those who didn't know our Daughter, Robin Aguilar. Thank You Friends, Family, students, and the Funeral Home for being there for us.

Thank You,
Israel & Beatrice Aguilar

"Try UHV" scholarships now available

The University of Houston-Victoria is giving away "Try UHV" scholarships to new students for the spring 2005 semester. The School of Arts and Sciences will give special consideration to computer science majors and the School of Business Administration will award scholarships to new MBA students. The School of Education will accept scholarship applications from all of their new students. "Try UHV" scholarships are available to students who will be taking courses online and/or in a traditional classroom setting.

To be eligible for the "Try UHV" scholarship students must complete the 2004-2005 UHV Financial Aid and Scholarship Application. Only students who the Office of Financial Aid receives recommendations for will be awarded the "Try UHV" scholarships.

UHV held an open house Tuesday, Nov. 16. All three academic schools will be giving away "Try UHV" scholarships on a first-come, first-served basis.

For more information about "Try UHV" scholarships visit www.uhv.edu/tryuhv. To learn more about the open house event, call the Office of Student Recruitment and Relations at 361-570-4135.
