Celebrate Jesus Christ

Revs. Joe and Mercy Fling; Living Hope Church, Eagle Lake

And the Angel, said unto them, "Fear not; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people." Luke 2:10

At this time of year all of the world seems caught up in the festival of Christ. We could lament the secularization, the commercialization of the day. We could deplore that so many seem to miss the point of giving and receiving. But we want you all to focus on the joy. Focus on the life. Focus on the Good News of Great Joy, which will be to all people.

For that is what the angels announced to the shepherds in the fields. Christmas is about good news. Do you need good news? Have things not been going well for you. There is hope in Jesus Christ. The hope is found in God's love for we fallen mortals, that caused Him to send His only son to die for our sins. The hope that we can live a life of great quality, of greater satisfaction, a life "more abundant" Jesus called it.

The good news was about a great joy. When we come to these seasons of life, we ought to dwell on the joy. Choose some other day to dwell on your misfortune; to wonder why life never seems to work out. On this day — on this one day — on this one, wonderful, day of all days, let us rejoice. Rejoice that God, our loving creator loved us so much. Rejoice that He gave up the Son most dear to Him, for us. For you and me. You may find that you want to let that spirit of joy stay with you for many more days as well.

The Apostle Paul encourages us to think on good things, "if there be any good, lovely, kind, of good report or praiseworthy, think on these things." This Christmas season try to recall, and remember the most joyous times that you have ever had with family and friends. Try to relish the times that you have felt most close to God and the Christ child.

Good News of Great Joy which shall be to all people. All people. God's intention with the coming of His Son, the Christ, the Messiah was that all people would become one family of faith. One people. One celebration of peace, love and joy. Open your hearts this Christmas. Out of our joy and abundance we share of God's grace and bounty with all. The Spirit of Christmas is the spirit of love and giving. We never forget that God loved, and God gave.

There is hope. There is hope for your family. Here is hope for your marriage. There is hope for your children. No pit is too deep, but that God is there. His message is one of faith, hope, and love, abiding forever with us. There is hope for you personally, and for us collectively.

This good news is for all people. A great joy for all people. Celebrate that life and joy this Christmas. We at Living Hope Church pray that God by His Holy Spirit will bless you and keep you in this season, and let you feel the closeness of the love of Christ. The love that God shared with us at Christmas.

"Every time a hand reaches out to help another... that is Christmas.

Every time someone puts anger aside and strives for understanding... that is Christmas.

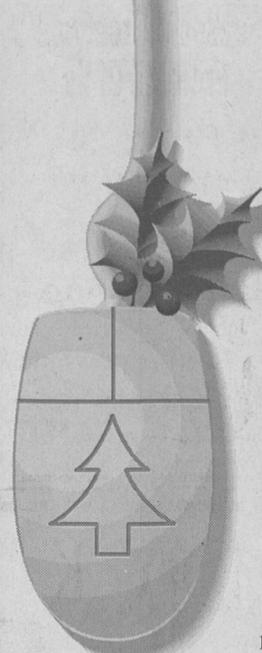

Every time people forget their differences and realize their love for each other... that is Christmas.

That special Love that God sent to Earth through His Son."

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!
