Incumbent JP George Cason Will Face Dwight Hadley In November Election County Judge Al Jamison Wins Re-Election With Primary Victory

Colorado County Judge Al Jamison won re-election to a third 4-year term Tuesday night with a Republican primary victory over Dwain Dungen.

Unofficial returns had Jamison with 1,175 votes and Dungen with 726.

There is no Democratic candidate, meaning Jamison will be unopposed in the November general election.

Also in the Republican primary for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2, which includes Weimar and Sheridan, Richard Luhrs won the Republican nomination with 287 votes to 225 for Jim Fox.

Incumbent Ed Hanzelka Jr. did not seek re-election.

In the fall, Luhrs will face Democrat W.O. Williamson, who was unopposed in the Democratic primary.

In the Democratic primary for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, which covers an area from Columbus south to Garwood, Billy Hefner defeated incumbent Dodie Dungen, 117 to 84. There is no Republican candidate.

Also, there were contested primaries for Justice of the Peace in Precinct 4, which includes Eagle Lake.

In the Democratic primary, incumbent George Cason defeated Carolyn Baird, 225 to 111.

Cason will face Dwight Hadley in the fall. Hadley polled 134 in the Republican primary to defeat Roy H.

"Burr" Crane, who had 80 votes.

Also, State Rep. Robby Cook, who was unopposed for the Democratic nomination, received 693 votes.

In the Republican primary for the state representative position, Herman Brune polled 1,267 votes in the county, compared to 373 for Tim Kleinschmidt.

In the Republican primary for State Senator, District 18, Glenn Hegar had 858 votes, Gary Gates, 522, and David Stall, 267.

In the Democratic primary for State Senator Bret Baldwin polled 218 votes to 313 for Henry Boehm Jr., although Boehm had earlier withdrawn from the race.

I-10 Wreck Claims Life Of Woman

A two-vehicle accident Tuesday afternoon on Interstate 10, about three miles east of Weimar, claimed the life of a 62-year-old San Antonio woman.

The woman's name was being withheld late Tuesday, pending notification of relatives.

The accident occurred about 1:30 p.m.

According to a report by the Texas Department of Public Safety, the woman was westbound in a 2006 Chevrolet Cobalt.

The report said the vehicle left the roadway, crossed into the median, began skidding and struck the rear of an eastbound tractor-trailer, driven by Ronald Seymour of Maryville, Tenn.

The force of the impact knocked the rear wheels off the trailer and crushed the front of the auto.

Peace Justice Ed Hanzelka Jr. pronounced the woman dead at the scene.

The truck driver was not injured. Eastbound traffic was blocked while the wreckage was cleared.

The accident was investigated by DPS Trooper Stephen Pierce.

Eagle Lake Firefighters work to put out a blaze in a mobile home Wednesday, March 1, in the 500 Block of First St. One pumper truck was called out and about ten volunteers subdued the fire in a few minutes. The cause of the blaze is under investigation.
