Respite Care benefits everyone. Respite is a service that offers short-term or temporary relief for caregivers and their families. Stevens Nursing and Rehabilitation Center of Hallettsville's commitment to service allows those caring for their loved ones the opportunity for time on their own. The benefits are numerous. A break in daily routine can help avoid stress and fatigue for the caregiver. It can also provide your loved one with a change in his or her daily routine allowing them the opportunity to build new relationships and/or move towards a sense of independence.

In our home like setting, your loved one will receive...

- 24 hour Nursing Coverage
- Medication Administration
- Three Meals and Snacks a day
- Activities
- Laundry
- Transportation

A day to relax, a weekend get-away or weeklong vacation may be possible. You and your loved one both deserve the time! For more information on Respite Care, please contact us:
