Leading hitters were Lance Morales, 1 for 3, double; Jeremy Hill, 1 for 2; Taylor Cook, 1 for 3; M. Morales, 1 for 3; and Gary Francis, 1 for 1.

The Raiders then traveled to Weimar on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and took on three tough teams.

On Thursday the raiders opened up the tournament with the St. Joseph Flyers. The Flyers came out on top 8-0. Cook absorbed the loss throwing 5-2/3 innings and striking out seven. L. Morales collected the lone hit for the Raiders.

The Raiders on Friday and Saturday lost to Hallettsville 10-2 and Weimar in an error prone ballgame, 12-10.

Leading hitters in both games were Ross Lobpries, 2 for 7, two doubles, RBI; M. Morales, 2 for 6, 2RBI; Trent Popp, 1 for 5, RBI; Hill, 1 for 5, RBI.

The Raiders were to start district play Tuesday versus Hempstead at 3 p.m. The first home district game is Saturday, March 25 versus the Sealy Tigers with the JV starting at 4:30 p.m.
