FAMILY SENIOR CARE

We offer highly specialized and Highly-trained Wound Care Specialist and 24-hour Skilled Nursing Care.

We offer highly specialized and Highly-trained Wound Care Specialist and 24-hour Skilled Nursing Care. Nathan Miller, M.D. is in Wharton to treat complex wounds, bedsores and chronic venous stasis ulcers of the lower extremities. Dr. Miller is a General Surgeon, Trauma and Wound Care Specialist and is fluent in Spanish. He belongs to the group of Scott and White Hospital in Temple and comes to our facility on a weekly to bi-weekly basis, according to our needs. A customized wound care protocol is carefully designed for each individual patient and is followed closely by our specialist and well-trained nursing staff.

Dr. Miller performs wound care evaluation and works in conjunction with the existing primary care physicians that are part of our nursing facility. All the information regarding the patient's progress is sent to the treating doctor. He is our "in house" surgical consultant. Dr. Miller is here usually on the weekends during family visiting hours thus allowing personal interaction, informed treatment planning and counseling between the doctor and patient's family. His treatment is covered by Medicare and most private health insurance.
