ATTENTION FARMERS AND RANCHERS!
State Representative ROBBY COOK FAILED
to protect your rights!
We need to REPEAL the Registration and Animal Tagging Law now.

Tim Kleinschmidt, Republican candidate for State Representative, District 17, is organizing an effort to repeal Texas House Bill 1361, which was approved by the Legislature last year.

"As a small rancher, I strongly oppose the registration and animal tagging program. It burdens farmers and ranchers, costs too much money, and creates a bloated bureaucracy. Texas needs to correct the mistake made by the Legislature (including Robby Cook) in passing the law and by the Texas Animal Health Commission in drafting regulations implementing the law. The proposed program is far too broad, gives too much power to TAHC, invades your privacy, and puts the cost of the program too much on the farmer and rancher" —Tim Kleinschmidt

If you agree that HB 1361 should be repealed, tear off and return the form below or contact Tim's campaign at 979-542-8037.
