New District A Tough One

The tough just got tougher. That is the word on the new District 28-2A. It includes three teams moving down from 3A: Rice, Hallettsville and Edna, the most in any 2A district.

Other teams in the district include: Weimar, Schulenburg, Ganado, Tidehaven and Industrial.

Rice is predicted by Texas Football to finish first in the district.

This is a run-down of the other district teams in the magazine's projected order of finish.

Schulenburg Shorthorns are coming off a 12-1 season in which they were the Division II regional semi-finalists and were 5-0 in district. Coach Mike Finley is in his first year at Schulenburg and has five offensive and six defensive returning starters. Tight end Casey Moore and wide receiver Jason Cummins are listed as players to watch.

Hallettsville Brahmas were 6-4 and made bi-district. They were 3-2 in district.

Rick Masek moved up to head coach after being defensive coordinator the past three years.

Peedy Bedford, last year's quarterback, is moving to tailback. Sophomore Colby Schindler and junior DeJuan Lemons are competing for the quarterback job. They have three offensive and five defensive returning starters.

Industrial Cobras reached the Division I quarterfinals and posted an 8-4 season mark and were 3-2 in district. Quarterback Mason Schoonover passed for 1,185 yards and ran for 576 yards.
