dzone for two points making it a 14-0 Raider lead with 9:51 left in the first.

Hallettsville started their next possession at the 34-yard line.

The Brahmas picked up a first down at the 47 after a Raider pass interference penalty.

On first down, they rushed for eight yards and then one yard on the next play.

On third-and-one Pablo Suarez stopped a Hallettsville runner for no gain.

On fourth down, a quarterback keeper for two yards gave Hallettsville a first down.

First down was an incomplete pass and on the next play another botched handoff resulted in another turnover. Botard recovered the ball at the 45-yard line for the Raiders.

The Raiders would make Hallettsville pay for the turnover four plays later.

After an incompletion, Foster got the call and pounded out 15 yards to the Brahma 40.

Lobries carried the ball next for five yards.

On second down, Foster broke loose again for a 35-yard score.

Kurt Stern's extra point try was good, and the Raiders led 21-0 with 3:58 left in the quarter.

The Brahmas started their next possession at the 30. the Raider defense held Hallettsville to a three-and-out.

On first down, Botard, Williams, and Pratt stuffed the Brahma run for no gain.

On second down, Danklefs and Suarez stopped a rush attempt behind the line of scrimmage for a one-yard loss.

A pass attempt on third down was incomplete and Hallettsville was forced to punt.

Williams returned the punt 59 yards to the 14.

On the first play, Cook hit Pratt for a 14-yard score.

Stern's extra point was good, and the score was 28-0 with 2:11 left in the first quarter.

Hallettsville took over after the kickoff at the 33-yard line.

The Brahmas rushed the ball for 16 yards on first down to the 49.

A delay of game pushed them
