THC Sets Public Meeting On Historic District

E. Post Office St.

Owners or partial owners of any private property in the area being submitted may object to the nomination, but must do so in writing with a notarized statement proving ownership and their objection to the nomination.

If a majority of property owners object, the area will not be listed on the registry.

Each property owner has only one vote, regardless of the number of properties owned in the district.

The Texas Historical Commission must receive comments, or official objections before January 20, 2007. Comments should be sent to F. Lawrence Oaks, State Historical Preservation Officer, Texas Historical Commission, P.O. Box 12276, Austin, Texas, 78711.

Lighting up the holidays.

As you begin using decorative lighting in and around your home this holiday season, AEP Texas reminds you to keep safety in mind. Check light strings for frayed cords, and use only UL-approved lights and extension cords. Remember not to overload circuits, and remind children not to touch lights or outlets. And on behalf of all of us here at AEP Texas, please enjoy a safe, bright holiday season with your family and friends. AEP Texas is there, always working for you.
