schools can take advantage of this convenient test site by registering their student by internet at act.org, or by contacting your high school counseling office for registration forms. Registration should be completed by Friday, January 5, 2007 to avoid additional charge. Also contact your high school counselor for information concerning this and other tests required for post-secondary schooling.

Go-Texan scholarship apps. available

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo will provide a $12,000, four-year scholarship to an eligible, outstanding student in each of the 60 Area Go-Texan counties in 2007. The scholarship is open to every senior who meets the criteria of citizenship, residence, academic standing, college/university enrollment plans, demonstrated leadership, character and economic need. Scholarship applications are available at the Colorado County Extension Office, 316 Spring St., Columbus or may be downloaded from the HLSR website at www.rodeohouston.com. Completed applications are due in the Colorado County Extension Office on or before January 10, 2007.

Little Dribblers registration underway

The 2007 Rice Little Dribblers boys and girls Basketball League registration is underway. Registration deadline was set for December 20. Late registration fee is $15. Fee includes cost of uniform. Eligibility requirements include boys and girls grades 5th through 6th grade. Games will be held on Saturdays, January 20 through February 10 at Rice High School (RHS). Transportation will not be provided. For more information call RHS at 234-3535.

Pictured above is the parade entry that won the award for best use of lights in last week's Christmas Parade. Gus Seaholm and his grandchildren Tallon and Drayton Canaris gave Frosty a ride through Eagle Lake with their golf cart. The Eagle Tree and Landscape entry won for best commercial entry, but was misidentified in last week's edition.

Principal Sue Weller leads the way as the "Singing Train" makes its way in and out of the Eagle Lake Primary School. The halls happened to be decorated in the theme of different countries.
