Dear Santa Claus,
We are in kindergarten at Eagle Lake Elementary School. We have been fabulous this year and we have done our homework every night! We read our books everyday. We have a few questions for you. Can we play with you and the reindeer? What is the North Pole like? When will it snow here? Can we ride on your sleigh? How many elves do you have?

We have thought about what we would like for Christmas and made a list for you. This is what we wish for this Christmas:

Jonathan Aguilar — Please Santa, come to my house.

Aaliyah Almanza — Can I please have Rudolph?

Er'DeTric Bluntson — Santa, I want a Monster Truck.

Jaevon Boyance — May I please have a real big screen TV for my room?

Camilia Cavasos — Would you please give me a Little Mermaid Kitchen?

Ethan Dulany — I want a big screen TV and a DVD player for my room.

Tarris Fields — Please give me a beautiful real horse.

Hector Flores — I want a big Christmas tree.

Raquel Hatton — I want Santa to bring me presents and a Dora Kitchen.

Daviana Henderson — I want a Game Boy.

Kierra Johnson — I want a Dora Store and some little beautiful puppies.

Christian Lares — I want a motorcycle and a pencil.

Robert Moreida — I want a car.

Arath Ruvalcaba — I want a Big Center House and a motorcycle please.

Thank you for reading our letter. We hope that you can come visit all of us on Christmas. We love you, Santa!
