Houston. Lattimore said that officers have responded to multiple incidents of fighting or other minor criminal complaints between the two groups in that area leading up to Monday night's shooting.

Lattimore said that Johnson did not seem to be centrally involved in the feud, but had gotten involved in the altercation that night.

that since the issue involves personnel, he felt the commissioners should discuss it in closed session at their next meeting.

—Approved a request to consolidate polling places in a special constitutional election set for May 12. The number of polling places will be reduced from 12 to 8 to save on expenses because of anticipated low turnout.

—Authorized the county judge to approve change orders on the district courtroom repairs. Jamison said commissioners would be advised of changes, but said if changes had to wait until meeting of commissioners court, the county may incur additional costs.
