Shooting

law enforcement vehicles were at the scene when the shootings occurred.

A survey of the original scene turned up a possum that appeared to have been killed recently by a firearm.

and has no problem with the ordinance.

City manager Ron Holland recommended that council have a workshop to discuss the issue and see if any changes might need to be made to the ordinance.

"A workshop will help us get a better handle on the situation," said Mayor Mike Morales.

"It will be open to the public and everyone be able to have input," he added.

In other council action:
-Council voted to re-adopt the juvenile curfew policy. The curfew is 10 p.m. every night.

-Council voted to adjust a high water bill for Stella Tate. Holland said that the high usage had been investigated and no reason for the high reading could be found.

-Council took no action on a request for a four-way stop Pend-leton and Stevenson Streets.
