Stafford Hosting 'Broadway Songs' April 14

Jeryl Hoover and the Fredericksburg Theatre Company return to the Stafford Opera House on Saturday, April 14 bringing back the exciting and dynamic sounds of Broadway to the stage of the Stafford Opera House in the production, Broadway Springs Into Song.

This show was specially picked to be performed here in the Spring to coincide with the Columbus Convention and Visitors Bureau emphasis on Art, Architecture and Wildflowers and until recently had been sold out for months. Due to some cancellations of tour groups, tickets are now available and what an opportunity for everyone who looks forward to hearing Hoover and Company perform their Broadway concert.

It will be mainly duets between the "Broadway leading lady and leading man". Some will be about their love for each other, some about their difficulties with each other. Well-known classic musicals are represented as well as some of the newer ones. Shows represented in their repertoire for the evening will be: Fiddler on the Roof, Camelot, I Do! I Do!, Kiss Me, Kate, Wizard of Oz, Gigi, Aida, Wicked and several others.

Fans and followers of the Fredericksburg Theatre Company will remember the lady singers in this production, Monica Griffin, Melodie Lane, and Tiffany Hartmann, when they performed an outstanding show at the opera house last year singing with Hoover and the Sentimental Journey Orchestra. Griffin is from Marble Falls, Lane lives in Fredericksburg, and Hartmann in San Antonio.

Call now for tickets to Broadway Springs into Song. Don't miss this dinner theatre show. Visit with friends at 5:30 p.m. for social hour. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the curtain opens at 7:30 p.m.

For tickets or more information call 979-732-5135.
