Gadabouts Celebrate A 90th Birthday

By Catherine Berger,
Club Secretary

The Nada/Garwood Gadabouts met March 15 at 2:30 p.m. at the Garwood Fire Station with President Anita Meismer welcoming all to the meeting. Minnie Lee Conner lead the club in the opening ceremony.

Thirteen members and two guests answered the roll call by stating their least favorite green vegetable and spinach won out. Catherine read the minutes of the last meeting and they were approved as read. Treasurer Helen Noteboom presented the treasurer's report.

Hospitality committee: Anita sent get well cards to Joe Leopold, Micky Labay, Janice Phillips and Edward Koronek. Birthday wishes went to Viola Frels, Minnie Lee Conner and Pauline Solomon.

Gardening: Anita, Leona and Ella Buzek have begun planting for the spring season.

Unfinished Business: Options were discussed to finance the scholarship. A bake sale was suggested. The matter was tabled until later.

Catherine presented the information she had obtained for a tour of the Brookside Community in Brookshire. This was also tabled until later.

New Business: Helen and Minnie Lee made and seconded a motion to present to Texas flag to the Fire Department. Motion carried. Anita said she has a Texas flag she will donate and a big "Thank You" to Anita.

Anita announced that beginning March 18 is Ag Week, and there will be an open house on the 22 at the Ag Building and encouraged members to attend.

Pauline Solomon and Clara Lobpries made and seconded a motion to keep the same officers for the 2007 and 2008 year. Motion carried. The officers will be: President-Anita Meismer; Vice-

President-Minnie Lee Conner; Secretary-Catherine Berger; and Treasurer-Helen Noteboom.

Program: Anita gave the program entitled "3900 Marbles".

Announcements: Next Gadabouts meeting-April 19, Nada KC's fish fry-every Friday during lent, senior citizens games party March 28

Members contributed 301 volunteer hours, 693 miles and $667.07 in monetary contributions for March.

After the meeting adjourned, "Happy Birthday" was sung to Minnie Lee, Pauline and Viola Frels. Minnie Lee was specially honored for reaching her 90 birthday and was presented with a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

Other refreshments included sandwiches, corn dip and chips, pickles, mixed nuts, spice cookies, lemon cake and cold drinks furnished by Pauline, Helen, Leona Wesselski, Minnie Lee, Clara Lobpries, Clara Gold, Anita and Catherine.

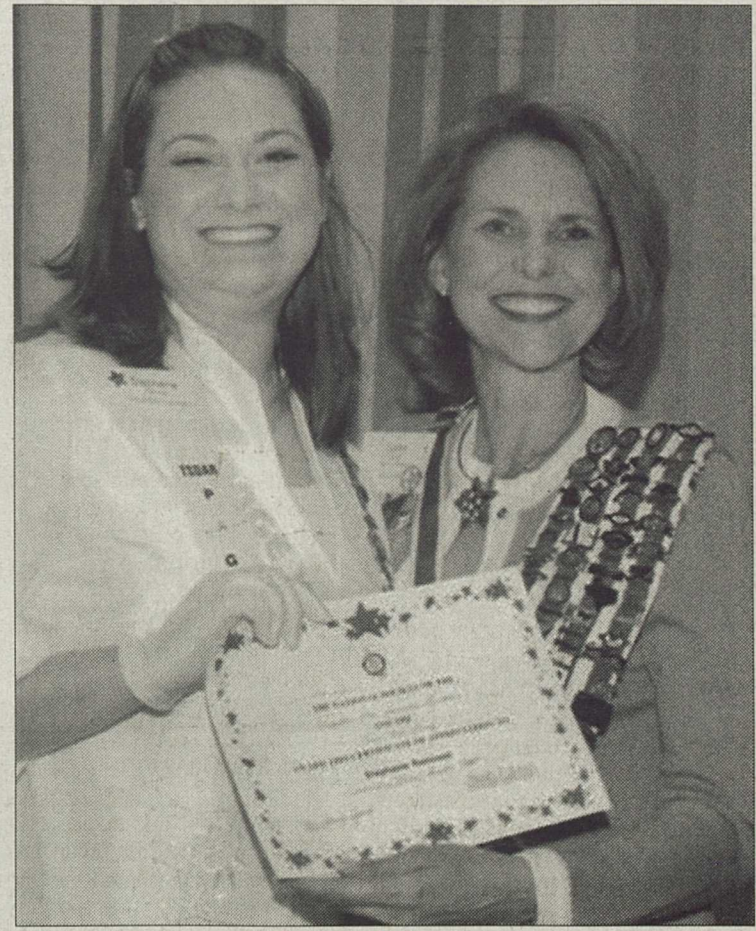

Members and guests attending were: Pauline Solomon, Helen Noteboom, Viola Frels, Leona Wesselski, Henrietta Patrick, Clara Lobpries, Catherine Berger, Minnie Lee Conner, Ella Buzek, Anita Meismer, Karol Kallina, Clara Gold, Edna Shimek, Cecelia Kallina, and Eileen Vowel.

Door prizes were distributed.

DAR Names Outstanding Chapter Junior

The John Everett Chapter DAR proudly introduces Stephanie Simmons Rainosek as this year's Outstanding Chapter Jr. Stephanie is currently serving as State Vice Chairman of Pages and Flag Chief for Texas DAR's State Conference.

Joining her this year was school friend Sarah Wooten, now of Dallas. Both women paged at Conference and both were voting Delegates. Also attending were their mothers, Nancy Wooten and Randa Simmons of Columbus, also Delegates. All DAR members from 18 to 35 are considered Junior members and are invited to page at State and National Conferences. Lasting friendships are made as these young women serve on committees together. The John Everett Chapter invites any young woman at least 18 to research her ancestry to see if she qualifies for membership. One must have descended from a man or woman who aided in the American Revolution.
