Lady Raiders Notch Two Straight Wins

The Lady Raiders won two games last week improving their district record to 4-6. The Raiders look to go for three in a row against Schulenburg on Tuesday night.

On April 3, the Lady Raiders hosted the Edna Cowgirls. In a previous meeting in the season, Edna defeated Rice 10-1.

However, on this night, the Lady Raiders had other plans. Rice jumped out to an early 1-0 lead on a single and a stolen base by Kim Varley, and a double by Mallory Dumont.

In the bottom half of the third, the Lady Raiders exploded for six runs on eight straight hits by Varley, Morgan Dumont, Mallory Dumont, Amber Huvar, Kourtney Korenek, April Pagel, Violette Villafuerte, and Lauren Shimek.

The Raiders pushed across two more runs in the fifth making the score 9-3. Korenek pitched all seven innings scattering four hits and allowing three runs in the win.

On April 5, the Lady Raiders traveled to Tidehaven. The Lady Raiders picked up an easy victory by a score 19-1.

Again it was Korenek on the mound allowing three hits and one run. The bats remained hot in this contest as well. Mallory Dumont, Huvar, Varley, Korenek, Villafuerte, and Kayla Robertson all had hits.

The Lady Raiders will host Hallettsville on Friday, April 13 at 6:30.

Boys Golf To Play In Regional

The Rice Raider boy's golf team, consisting of Adam Shimek (82), Travis Kaley (93), Wesley Arrison (90), Nick Duarte (93) and Carlos Sosa (97), qualified for the 2A Regional Golf Tournament to be held in San Marcos on April 23 and 24.

The boys finished 2nd in the District Golf Tournament behind Industrial.

Rice carded a total of 358, eight shots behind Industrial 350. Adam Shimek won District medalist honors firing an 82.

The Raider Girl's team, consisting of Mallory Dumont, Danielle Herrera, Kortney Korenek and Kayla Robertson, finished 5th.

The leading scorer for the Lady Raiders was Mallory Dumont.

Logan Meitzen competed in the A-Class Men's Open Division of the 2007 Browning-Briley World Open Shoot the first weekend in April in Houston. He won three trophies, 1st place in FITASC, 3rd in the main event and third in the 5-Stand event (he tied for 2nd place only one target short of 1st, but was awarded 3rd after a blind draw).

The Browning-Briley World Open is one of the largest and most prestigious shoots in the country, featuring over 350 competitors.

Logan was accompanied to the shoot by his father, John Meitzen, who was unable to compete due to recent eye problems.
