Rice CISD School Board

report on teaching stipends for the district.

The district currently offers a $5,000 critical needs stipend for secondary math, science, English, history and foreign language.

Rice by offers the most in terms of critical needs stipends in the area.

Weimar offers $5,000 for physics and chemistry while Industrial offers no stipends.

"A big part of keeping teachers is being able to offer a competitive salary and benefits package," said

Lanier. He added that he felt the Rice board had done a good job of keeping the district competitive.

The board also agreed to set a date to canvass results of the May 12 election. The date was set for May 21 at 6 p.m.
