Farm Safety Poster Contest Winners Named

Thirty 5th grade students from the Columbus and Weimar Elementary schools participated in the 2007 Passenger Safety poster contest which was sponsored by Texas Cooperative Extension's Passenger Safety and the Colorado County Extension office.

The focus of the contest was to design a poster emphasizing any or all of the following messages:

The importance of using a booster seat for children ages 4-8 or under 4'9"

Safety belt use of child over 8 years of age Children 12 and under are safest riding in the back seat.

At the annual Colorado County Farm Safety/Health Day the top three place winners were awarded cash prizes, radios, bicycle helmets, and notepads.

First place winner was Shoenstatt Tovar, second place winner was Lauren Zajicek, and third place winner was Juanita Stanck.

All contest participants were also awarded notepads and iPod covers, which were donated through the Extension's Passenger Safety department.
