

Good Luck In District Raiders!

Rice Opens District In Weimar Friday

The Rice Raiders will open district on Friday night in Weimar at 7:30 p.m.

The Raiders are off to a great start at 3-0, having defeated 3A teams Luling, Sealy and Brookshire Royal.

Last season the Raiders finished district with a 5-2 mark en route to the playoffs.

Rice is looking for another run at the playoffs and will face an improved Weimar Wildcat team in the first district test.

The Wildcats are 2-1 on the season including a decisive victory over Flatonia last week.

Weimar has scored 97 points on the season, second only to Rice with 99. They have given up 67 points defensively to Rice's district best 34.

The Wildcats have thrown for 750 yards on the season and rushed for 360 while the Raiders favor the run with 700 rushing and 320 passing yards.

Rice will look for big yards from district rushing and scoring leader Zacchaeus Foster who has racked-up 440 yards and 6 touchdowns in the first three games.

On the other side Weimar's Drew Quinney will look for his favorite target Marcus Rhodes who has 306 of Quinney's 725 passing yards.

Rice quarterback Taylor Cook will look to add to his three passing and four rushing touchdowns.
