New Troopers Graduate From DPS

The DPS Training Academy graduated 68 new troopers during an Austin ceremony today.

They will soon report to duty stations across the state.

W. Kenneth Law, Chief Justice of the Texas Third District Court of Appeals, delivered the keynote address.

"When we put on a trooper uniform or a black robe, we represent something bigger than ourselves," Judge Law said.

The troopers began the 28-week training academy in March.

Instruction covered more than 100 subjects, including counter-terrorism, traffic and criminal law, arrest and control procedures, accident reconstruction, first aid and Spanish.

They also received extensive use of force, communication skills, firearms, driving, criminal interdiction, cultural diversity and physical fitness training.

"Judge Law is correct: As law enforcement officers, much is expected of us.

These graduates join a proud law enforcement tradition, and we expect them to uphold that reputation for fair and honest law enforcement," said DPS Director Col. Thomas A. Davis Jr.

"They will be placing themselves willingly into great danger to protect all of us here in Texas."

In about three weeks, the troopers will move to their new duty stations.

They will spend the first six months in on-the-job training with a senior trooper.

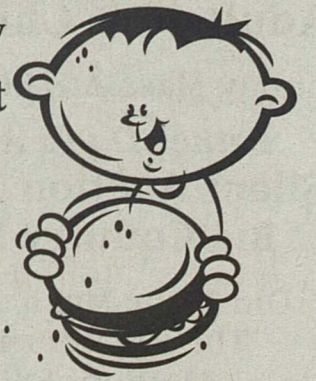

Anyone interested in becoming a State trooper can call the toll-free line, 1-866-TXTROOP, 898-7667, or visit the DPS Web site, www.txdps.state.tx.us, for more information.

YOUR HEALTH, YOUR MOUTH

As your start to witness changes in your overall health and looks as you age, your mouth and teeth are easy to overlook. Though you may not put oral care front and center in your anti-aging arsenal, there's good reason to.

Not only is maintaining dental health more important as you age, but a healthy beautiful smile is an easy (surgery-free) way to keep yourself looking younger and better than ever. The trend toward maintaining those pearly whites is on the rise. In the past year alone, dollar sales in the dental-accessories category (including whitening products) rose 80 percent to $298.5 million.

Check with your dentist for ways to keep your teeth in mint condition.
