

Rice Rice Go Raiders, Go!

Taylor Cook looks for a hole in the line to run through on Friday night.

Raiders Now 6-1 On Season

29-yard gain to the Shorthorn 18.

The Raiders lost two yards on first down, but Cook found Hull again on the following play for a 20-yard score to get the Raider on the board. Luis Samaniego made the extra point and the score was 21-7 in favor of Schulenburg with 3:01 left in the half.

Schulenburg went to work on the ground with their next possession and ran the ball down to the Raider 15.

The defense dug in and after stopping Schulenburg for no-gain and getting the help of a false start penalty, forced the Shorthorns to try a field goal.

The 40-yard attempt was good and Schulenburg led 24-7 at half time.

Rice got the ball at the 31 to start the second half. Cook came up with a big 11-yard run for a first down on third and eight to keep the Raiders alive.

Foster got the ball on the next play and broke free for a 39-yard carry to the 18.

After a short gain on first down, Cook hit Hull for a 17-yard score with just under two minutes gone in the second half. Samaniego nailed the extra point and the Raiders were behind 24-14.

The Raider defense stepped up big and stuffed the quarterback on two straight plays to force a third and nine. A pass attempt was incomplete and Schulenburg was forced to punt.

The Raiders started at the Shorthorn 48, and Cook found Toliver on the first play for a 10-yard gain.

Cook hit Hull for nine yards two plays later and Foster picked up the first down with a four-yard carry on third down.

Cook then threw to Hull for 13, followed by Toliver for 10 to the three-yard line.

Cook then punched the ball into the end zone with a three yard run. After the extra point, the Raiders were within three points, 24-21, with 5:27 left in the third quarter.

Schulenburg, however, would answer back just three plays later with a 61-yard touchdown run to put them back on top 31-21 with minutes left in the third.

The Shorthorns came up with an interception on the first play of the Raiders next possession and scored again two plays later with a 12-yard run. After a botched extra point, the score was 37-21 with 3:20 left in the third.

The Raiders drove to the 48-yard line on their next possession where Cook picked up a first down on a fourth and four.

The Shorthorns intercepted the ball on the next play on a tipped ball and took over at the 16.

They ran the ball 14 consecutive times and drained about seven minutes off the clock on their next drive en route to scoring their final touchdown of the night.

They ran in the ball for a two point conversion after a bad snap to make the score 45-21 with 4:21 left in the game.

Rice did end the game a good note with a 55-yard touchdown drive capped by a 14-yard Cook run. The extra point was good, making the final score 45-27.

Raiders Take On Hallettsville Friday Night In Altair

The Raiders are set to take on Hallettsville at home on Friday night. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. in Altair.

After a loss last week to Schulenburg, the Raiders are in a four-way tie for first place in district with fellow 3-1 teams Edna, Halletts-ville, and Schulenburg.

Hallettsville favors the run, where they have averaged about 233 yards per game.

The Brahmas are 4-3 on the season and come into Friday's contest having lost to Edna 41-35 last week.
