

Sportsman's Restaurant Offers 'Best Food in Texas'

The sign at Sportsman's Restaurant on Boothe Drive in Eagle Lake reads "The Best Food in Texas". Owners Janie and Doug Schwemm have been offering some of the finest food available in the area for over 20 years.

The Schwemms and their staff work very hard to live up to their motto—"Dedication to Excellence".

The Best Food in Texas" is not just a slogan to be taken lightly. Sportsman's has received statewide recognition in such publications as Best Hometown Restaurants in Texas, Best Country Cafes in Texas, the Ronald McDonald Cookbook, Day Tours of Houston and the front page of the Houston Chronicle's Friday Restaurant Review.

The restaurant also has been featured in the Houston Chronicle's Sunday magazine "Texas" as well as KTRK-Channel 13's "Good Morning Houston," highlighting such dishes as seafood gumbo and Janie's New Orleans bread pudding with bourbon sauce.

The staff are past recipients of the prestigious Epicurean Award in Sealy. Sportsman's topped all the restaurants in a 50-mile radius.

Sportsman's offers a full-service menu for breakfast, lunch and dinner (except on Sunday when they close at 1:30 p.m.)

Breakfast items range from the Magnum plate to homemade biscuits and gravy.

Lunch includes a full menu plus a plate lunch special.

Dinner again has a full menu ranging from appetizers to hearty steak meals, quail and lite selections for those watching their waistlines. Nightly specials vary from Coconut or Louisiana Shrimp to specially prepared hand-cut ribeye steaks and baked or fried flounder. Be sure to check the "Specials Board" just inside the entrance. You never know what Janie and Doug will be offering for their customers'

LODGE

The Schwemms also offer their Sportsman's Hunting Lodge. The only place to be, says Doug. Call him or Janie for information about accommodations.

"I ate breakfast at the Sportsman's Restaurant in Eagle Lake. I had the Spanish omelet- with eggs, cheese, onions, ham and jalapeño peppers-and it was absolutely delicious! In addition to various types of omelets, Sportsman's also serves traditional ham and eggs or bacon and eggs, with hash browns or grits and toast. The owners, Doug and Janie Schwemm, maintain that they have "the Best Food in Texas." I can't disagree!"
