The Little Raiders entry in the Christmas parade was full of pep.

A great Christmas scene on this entry in the parade.

The Eagle Lake Area Royalty made an appearance at the parade.

DPS Encourages Safe Driving

The Department of Public Safety is asking Texas drivers to exhibit a little Christmas spirit on our roadways over the holidays.

"Remembering that Christmas is a time of peace, love, and joy, Texas motorists need to be respectful of other drivers," said Senior Trooper Gary Pflughaupt.

DPS Troopers and other law enforcement officers will be out in force for the Christmas and New Year's holidays, looking for speeders, drunk drivers and seat belt violators.

The DPS will be conducting three special emphasis programs to ensure public safety: Operation C.A.R.E. – Life Saver Weekend, Operation Holiday and Drink Drive. Go to Jail.

Operation C.A.R.E. – Life Saver Weekend begins Friday, Dec. 21. This operation will conclude on Sunday, Dec. 23. Operation C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) is a special emphasis program designed to reduce crashes, deaths, and injuries and to encourage strict adherence to established speed limits.

assignment of other departmental uniformed personnel from the Driver License Division to supplement Highway Patrol traffic enforcement.

Operation Holiday Christmas will start Saturday, Dec. 22 and end Tuesday, Dec. 25.

Operation Holiday New Year's will begin Monday, Dec. 31 and conclude Tuesday, Jan. 1.

Drink Drive. Go to Jail. is a national enforcement program geared towards combating drunk drivers.

The Drink Drive. Go to Jail. campaign is in full swing.

It kicked off Monday, Dec. 10 and will stop Tuesday, Jan. 1.

"Alcohol is always a concern during the holidays.

Those individuals who think they must operate a motor vehicle after consuming alcohol pose a tremendous risk, not only to themselves, but to innocent citizens as well," said Pflughaupt.

Texas has a new law concerning drunk driving.

House Bill 3131 became effective Sept. 1.

It states, if a county has no justice of the peace or judge other than a district court judge that is required to be a licensed attorney, any magistrate in the county can sign an evidentiary search warrant to draw blood in a DUI or DWI case.

In other words, if a suspect refuses the breath test, an evidentiary search warrant to draw blood will be obtained.

"Eligible counties around the state are using this new law to combat drunk driving," Pflughaupt stated.

"Anyone planning to consume alcoholic beverages should have someone else – who hasn't been drinking – drive them home."

Here are some good driving habits to employ:

Slow down – speed is the number one killer on Texas roads.

Don't drink and drive; get a designated driver.

Buckle up everyone in the vehicle.

Keep cell phone chatter to a minimum.

Drive with courtesy; spread the Christmas cheer.

Slow down in bad weather, construction areas and heavy traffic.
