Protecting Your Home From Mosquitoes

As the weather warms up, mosquito populations will increase, as will the potential for mosquito-borne diseases. Eastern Equine Encephalitis (EEE) and West Nile Virus are diseases that can plague horses and be potentially dangerous. Many times cases of infection can prove fatal.

Transmission to horses or humans requires mosquito species capable of creating a "bridge" between infected birds and uninfected mammals such as some Aedes, Coquillettidia, and Culex species, say experts at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Parish of the Nativity, Relay for Life team, power of prayer raised $4786 and was second place top fundraiser in the organization category. Their team also won second place in the Mr. Relay contest thanks to Burr Crane, pictured above. Team members were Susan Wilkerson, Glenda Moore, Suzanne Sykowski, Wanda Henry, Debbie Wishert, Sharon Sommer, Trica and Forest English, Erin Glueck, Lori Bayless, Melanie Lloyd, Theresa Zapalac, Frances Dromgoole and Martha Mikuleka.

Already, nine cases of EEE have been confirmed in Florida alone since the beginning of the year. There were a total of 18 cases of EEE in 2007 for the entire year.

"I am very concerned about the high number of cases so early in the year and I hope it doesn't mean we are in for a bad year," says Florida Agriculture and Consumer Services Commissioner Charles H. Bronson. "But we can take steps to keep that from happening, and that is to get the vaccinations done as quickly as possible."

EEE is a viral disease that affects the central nervous system. Signs of the virus include fever, listlessness, stumbling, circling, coma and usually death. The disease is fatal in horses in 90 percent of the cases. Vaccines are available to protect horses from the virus, but these medicines should be used as part of a mosquito-reduction process to be most effective.

Removing mosquitoes from property is essential to controlling the diseases they carry. The most effective method is to destroy the mosquito larval habitat by removing all potential sources of stagnant water, in which mosquitoes might breed. Mosquitoes can breed in any puddle that lasts more than four days. So be sure to drain water buckets, water troughs, wading pools, birdbaths, plastic containers, or any water-holding container.

It is also recommended to stable horses inside during peak mosquito feeding times, which include dawn and dusk. Use of mosquito-resistant structures such as well-maintained insect screening and fans may reduce potential access of mosquitoes to equine and other livestock hosts.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20
Aries, the rule of the week is that there are no rules. You're allowed to be a little reckless as long as it doesn't interfere in anyone else's business.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21
Staring at the task at hand will not get it done, Taurus. You have to set your sights on completion and start to dig into all of the things you need to get accomplished.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21
A supposed missed opportunity is brought to light again, Gemini. This time around, pounce on it. Romantic endeavors will have to wait until you have more quiet time.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22
Cancer, there's turmoil in your financial house. One look at your checkbook can give a clear indication of that. You may need to call in a professional to iron it out.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23
Leo, there are moments when you don't know in which direction you're heading. Grab a friend who can serve as your personal compass, providing the guidance you need.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22
Virgo, running away from problems will not make them disappear. But confronting others in a hostile manner won't make the situation better, either. Find a balance.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23
There's more to your abilities than you let others see, Libra. Why are you holding back? Let everyone in on the secret that you can do much more than you're letting on.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22
Scorpio, meandering down paths will certainly get you to your destination in time. But that's not usually your speed. Resist the urge to run through life without seeing the little things.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21
Sagittarius, you don't have to be on edge to get the recognition you desire at work. Know which people to "schmooze," play it straight with co-workers and your star will rise.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20
Capricorn, you can't push your responsibilities off onto others. That routine was worn thin a while ago. Step up to the plate and tackle what is yours and yours alone.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18
Aquarius, some soul-searching yields interesting results. You just may be ready to turn your life topsy-turvy in a quest to change many major aspects of who you are.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20
Now is the time to be frugal, Pisces. There are many big expenses on the horizon. Will you be ready for them when the bills come in?
