Gadabouts Hold End Of School Party

The Nada/Garwood Gadabouts held an End of School party for the Garwood Elementary School Kindergarten Class on May 8, at the Garwood Fire Department meeting room.

Kindergarten Teacher Charlotte Schneider introduced students Nayely Aguero, Jordan Baca, Traverion Garcia, Sabrina Hernandez, Elizabeth Jeffery, Kayla Johnson, Shayla Johnson, Clarisa Juarez, Juan Luciano, Denise Perez, Leyva Rangel, Enrique Rodriguez, Annalise Rutledge, Amber Serio, Celebrity Tolliver and Jessie Upson to the Gadabout members.

Following the introduction of the students a short program was given on the Veterans Memorial.

The students learned that the white cross at the monument is draped in black when a Veteran passes away to honor their memory and an explanation of what a Veteran has done for our country's freedom was also given.

Following the program a meal of chicken nuggets and french fries prepared by Leon Meisner was served along with catsup (a favorite condiment), punch and cookies prepared and served by Gadabout members, Helen Noteboom, Pauline Solomon, Sybil Balusek, Henrietta Patrick, Minnie Lee Conner and Anita Meisner.

Before departing each student was asked "what do you want to become when you grow up?" answers ranged from being a doctor, firefighter, football player to becoming a cheerleader.

Each student was pleasantly surprised with a "surprise bag" prepared by Pauline Solomon and a Certificate of Achievement by the Gadabouts.
