Traditional Art
Traditional arts will be on display in the Creative Homemaking Department during the 30th Annual Colorado County Fair on September 11 - 14, 2008. The Homemaking Committee's goal is to preserve and encourage traditional arts by way of competition. By providing this competition, quilters are encouraged to participate in the traditional arts that our grandmothers and great-grandmothers mastered. The arts in their day were a necessity in daily living. Quilting was revitalized in the 1970's and quilting continues to be an art form that is enjoyed by many in Colorado County and across the US.

Competition is open to Colorado County quilters as well as non-resident quilters. Entry fee is $5 per entry. Entry deadline is August 29, 2008. The quilts must be clean and in show condition with the quilt constructed within the past 3 years. Competition is also open to groups or clubs. Quilters may enter as many categories as desired. ## Water District Candidate Filing Now Under Way

Although the newly created Colorado County Groundwater Conservation District is less than a year old, five of its seven directors are up for election in November.

The remaining two directors will be up for election in 2009.

Filing for a place on the ballot opened on July 18 and will continue through Aug. 19.

The election will be held on Nov. 4.

The positions on the ballot and the incumbents in the positions are as follows:

- Place 1, Precinct 1—Betty Schiurring.
- Place 2, Precinct 2—Thomas Hudec.
- Place 3, Precinct 3—Mike Wostarek.
- Place 5, At Large, Columbus—Marian Schonenberg.
- Place 7, At Large, Weimar—

Scott Brasher.

Directors elected by precinct must reside in the county commissioner precinct in which they are seeking election. Only voters residing in that precinct may vote.

Directors elected at large must reside in the cities designed and are elected by voters county-wide.

Directors receive no pay for serving.

Individuals who interested in filing as candidates need to contact Marian Schonenberg, who is the secretary of the board of directors. She can be reached during the day at Curtiss Automotive in Columbus.

The two directors who are not up for election this year are Tom Kelley, Place 4, Precinct 4, and Jim Wiese, Place 6, At Large, Eagle Lake.
