Colorado County Burn Ban Lifted

Colorado County commissioners, meeting Monday, approved removing a ban on outdoor burning.

The commissioners took the action after County Judge Al Jamison had temporarily lifted the ban on Friday because of rains in the county.

Commissioner Darrell Gertson said he felt the commissioners could leave the ban off at least until their next meeting.

However, Commissioner Herbie Helmcamp voted against lifting the ban. He said that some areas of the county were dry and had not received the rain that other areas had.

In other action, commissioners:

- Approved an updated agreement for mutual assistance among law enforcement agencies in the county.
- Authorized advertisement for a deputy clerk vacancy for Precinct 2 Justice of the Peace and for a courthouse maintenance position.

Commissioners Working On Yearly Budget

per $100 valuation, an increase of 1 cent from the current rate.

The budget is an increase of $1.6 million over the current year's original budget.

Part of the increase will go to pay for the debt service of $197,000 annually on $5 million in certificates of obligation commissioners issued earlier this month for $2 million in courthouse repairs, $2 million for a new office annex and $1 million for road improvements.

Kana said the new tax rate and increases in property values would generate about $680,000 more in tax revenue, based on property values countywide of $1.65 billion. Property values increased 7.6 percent from last year.

Kana said that she is projecting taking $1.2 million in reserves to balance the budget. In 2007, the budget projected taking $1 million from reserves, but actually added $79,000 to reserves because of greater than expected revenues and less than expected expenses.

Kana also outlined several other changes in the budget for the coming year.

She noted two additional jailer positions are in the budget, as is an additional full-time paramedic to be staffed in Weimar. Salaries for the three positions will total about $90,000.

Also, an additional $20,000 is in the budget for interpreters for county an district courts due to increasing number of Spanish-speaking defendants.

There is also $100,000 in the budget for a future emergency medical services building in Weimar.

There is $50,000 in funds for possible matching grants for the EMS and emergency management departments.

Also included is $41,000 for a radio re-broadcaster in Weimar to provide better law enforcement radio reception.

Workers' compensation insurance for volunteer fire fighters is included at a cost of $3,500.

In the area of vehicles, $130,000 is in the budget for six cars in the sheriff's department, which is $30,000 more than in the current year.

There is also $30,000 budgeted for a new vehicle for emergency medical services as well as $20,000 for a new van for the 4-H program.

There is $11,700 budgeted for weekend and holiday magistrate duty by justices of the peace.

Another $30,000 is in the budget for compensation for constables when they serve as bailiffs, at $90 per court session.

In records preservation, $120,000 is budgeted for scanning and imaging county clerk and district clerk records.

She also said the budget provides $50,000 of additional funds to each of the commissioners' budgets for road work.

The auditor said there is $225,000 in the proposed budget as a contingency in case of emergencies.
