Rice FFA County Fair Information

To ALL Rice Consolidated FFA Members
 If you have a project for the Colorado County fair, please bring your entry cards, entry fee, and three letters inviting community and business people to come out to the fair and sale to school on August 25, 2008.
 They will be picked up from each campus Monday after school so each one can be signed by the Ag Science teacher responsible for checking your projects and will be taken to the county agent's office before the deadline of August 29.
 If you do not turn these in by August 25, it will be your responsibility to get them signed and turned in on your own. If you have any questions, please feel free to call one of the FFA advisers (Jennifer Council or Monte Williams) at school 979-234-3535, or FFA President Kari Beth Mahalitc, 234-5148.
 Also, remember all exhibitors are required to help with the fair clean up on September 6 at 8 a.m. Your parent/guardian will sign the schedule to work the four hours required by the fair at this time.
 Dale Rankin has also informed us that a hoof trimmer will be available on Saturday, August 16 beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the Fair Grounds. If any beef project in the county needs this done more information can be obtained from the county agent.

Want Ads Work Wonders!

Around 130 kids were in attendance during the week at First Baptist Church's Vacation Bible School. Each day from 5:30-8 pm, children sang songs, made craft projects, played games and learned important truths in Bible classes. As a group, the kids brought an offering of cereal boxes to benefit children at the Texas Baptist Children's Home in Round Rock. The theme for Vacation Bible School was "Outrigger Island." The entire church was transformed into a Hawaiian paradise, complete with outrigger canoes, surfboards, and a river running through the sanctuary. First Baptist Church would like to thank the many volunteers who aided them in this year's Bible School.
