ADDRESS: 522 Stephens, Eagle Lake, Texas 77434

or upon the written request of said Defendants or their attorney, a sufficient portion of said property(s) in order to satisfy said judgment(s), interest, penalties, and cost; any property sold shall be subject to the right of redemption of the Defendants or any person having an interest therein, to redeem the said property, or their interest therein, at any time within two years or, if applicable, six (6) months from the date the purchaser's deed is filed for record in the manner provided by law, and shall be subject to any other and further rights to which the Defendants or anyone interested therein may be entitled, under the provisions of law. Said sale to be made by me to satisfy the judgment(s) rendered in the above styled and numbered cause(s), together with interest, penalties, and costs of suit, and the proceeds of said sales to be applied to the satisfaction thereof, and the remainder, if any, to be applied as the law directs.

The Sheriff or his agent will sell the property interest to the highest bidder for cash upon oral bids under the rules governing auction sales generally. The bids must start at the amount of the opening bid set opposite each tract, which reflects the total taxes included in the judgment and the costs of the suit and of the sale and of the required legal publications. No bid less than this minimum figure can be accepted by the officer conducting the sale. Purchasers will receive the standard type of Sheriff's Deed, which is completely without warranty, express or implied. Such Sheriff's Deed does not convey the property described per se, but rather conveys to the purchaser only whatever interest was owned by the persons named in the lawsuit judgment. There is also no guarantee of any kind that any private title company will be willing to grant the purchaser a title policy on property purchased at this sale.

It will also be necessary that all bidders satisfy themselves concerning the location of the property on the ground prior to the sale, as such information will not be available at the time of the sale and no representations as to the extent or sufficiency of property description or location of property will be made in any regard. Maps and plats of the named surveys or subdivisions are on file in the office of the Colorado County Clerk and/or the Colorado County Appraisal District in Columbus, Texas, and all papers of the suits on which this sale is based are on file in the office of the District Clerk of Colorado County, Texas.

On the property sold, there are no warranties, express or implied, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. You buy the property "as is". Bidders are further advised that purchase of the property at this execution sale may not extinguish any liens or security interest on the property. You are simply purchasing whatever interest the Debtor has in the property. If you have any questions you need to consult counsel of your choice.

DATED at Columbus, Texas, July 31, 2008.

R. H. WIED, Sheriff
Colorado County, Texas
