Meet The Candidates Night Aug. 26

By Margie Raborn
On Aug. 26, the Taxpayers' Association of Colorado County hosted a Candidate's Night for those running for the office of U. S. House of Representatives. Those attending were Mr. George Morovich, the Republican candidate from La Grange and Mr. Jim Stutsman, the Libertarian candidate from Austin. Congressman Lloyd Doggett, the incumbent Democratic candidate, declined the invitation.

The format for the evening was a series of questions that had been sent to the candidates in advance, so that they could have their answers prepared.

These questions addressed many serious topics, including illegal immigration, war on terrorism, taxes and rising health care costs.

The candidates agreed in general on many issues, as they both expressed their full commitment for a smaller federal government, less taxation and regulation and more respect for "states' rights" in solving many of the problems we face today.

Both candidates expressed a firm commitment to uphold our Constitution.

Out-of-town guests for the meeting included: Debra Medina, Chairman, Wharton County Republican Party; Debbie Diers and Mr. Morovich's son, George Anthony, who are assisting Mr. Morovich with his campaign; and Leslie Taylor, of Houston, who is the Democratic candidate for Justice of the 1st Court of Appeals.

The Taxpayers Association of Colorado County will host a similar forum for the candidates who are running for the Texas House of Representatives on Tuesday, Sept. 23.

Local Groups Donate School Supplies

By Maria Saucedo
For the past 6 years, the Lord has given me this summer project. I check with the schools, and other people who give me families who will need help with school supplies for their children.

At the beginning, our main donations came from the Rice Medical Center employees and their families.

I would provide them with items needed for Pre-K-8th grade students. As the years went by, the Knights of Columbus joined in to help.

This year has been one of our most successful drives. We received help again from the KC's and additional help came from the American Legion.

Family and friends, Rice Medical Center employees and families, Rev. S. Whitfield, Christ Episcopal Church and a surrounding community church.

The Brian and Lynn Ellis family donated many new backpacks to be given out to the children.

It is truly a great joy to see the excitement and happiness on the children's faces when they receive their supplies!

Ken Craig, representing the American Legion and Mary Saucedo.
