

2008 Colorado County Fair Scholarship Winners

The Colorado County Fair Association (CCFA) offers 16 scholarships totaling $13,250 to the youth of Colorado County annually.

The 2008 recipients include: from Columbus High School, Garrett Schatte, son of Wendy and Kevin Page, who received $1000; Kayla Pfeffer, daughter of Janis and Darrell Pfeffer, who received $1000; Simone Petrosky, daughter of Deborah and Gregory Petrosky, who received $500 and Kayla Kana, daughter of Raymie and Michael Kana, who received $500; from Rice High School, Trey Staff, son of Monica and Frank Staff, who received $1000; Hillary Johnson, daughter of Roberta and Bruce Johnson, who received $1000; Clayton Watz, son of Lisa and Todd Krenek, who received $500 and Kaci Kazmir, daughter of Jonell and Gene Kazmir, who received $500; from Weimar High School, Elizabeth Treptow, daughter of Liz and Bill Treptow, who received $1000; Clint Anders, son of Patsy and James Anders, who received $1000 and Courtney Zapalac, daughter of Barbara and Dale Zapalac, who received $500.

The scholarships awarded Schatte, Staff and Treptow were given in memory of the late Eddie Orange of Columbus, who was a member of the CCFA's board of directors. Orange was also serving as president of the Colorado County Ag Complex Board at the time of his death. The scholarship awarded Pfeffer was given in memory of the late Sandra Robinson, a member of CCFA's board of directors from 1999-2005. Robinson also served as Junior Fair Board Sponsor during that time.

In addition, $4,250 in scholarships was awarded to winners in the 2007 Fair Queens' Pageant. Fair Queen Simone Petrosky received the $1000 Leslie Schmidt Heard Memorial Scholarship. Heard was 1985 Fair Queen. Membership Queen Stefani Gertson, daughter of Gail and Darrell Gertson, received the $2000 Pamela Potter Honorary Scholarship, for having sold the most advance season passes to the 2007 fair. Potter has served as pageant director since 1979, and has been a member of CCFA's board of directors since 1981, currently serving as first vice president. The first runner-up in sales, Kylee Werland daughter of Kamla and Larry Hillmer, received a $750 scholarship. The second runner-up in sales was Petrosky, who received a $500 scholarship.
