HENNEKE
Funeral Home

1515 Montezuma St.
Columbus
732-2143

Our central location enable us to serve families throughout Colorado County. We are proud to offer the facilities of our beautiful funeral home and large chapel, seating up to 350 people, as part of our service.

The business now known as Henneke Funeral Home was established in 1884 by James Ramsey when he opened a hardware and coffin store in downtown Columbus. In 1906, James Ramsey sold the business to three Untermeyer Brothers, who operated the business for some years. It was later solely owned and operated by Emil E.J. Untermeyer until his death in 1968, when Robert H. Henneke took over as funeral director in charge. Robert began employment for Untermeyer's in November of 1965 right after graduation from high school. In 1969, Robert and wife Katharine purchased the funeral from the Untermeyer family. Henneke Funeral Home is proud to be independently family owned, has eight employees, and offers dignified personal funeral services, cremations, prearranged funeral plans, wide variety of standard and customized monuments and private granite estate mausoleums. Our staff is available to serve everyone during the loss of their loved one.
