

Taking A Look Back At Fairs Past

LOOKING BACK: Fair association first vice president Pamela Potter of Columbus, on the left, visits with 1996 Fair Queen Frances Mrkwa of Eagle Lake, while fair past president Lynda Appelt Evans, formerly of Eagle Lake, now of Livingston, looks on. Potter has served as pageant director since 1979.

LOOKING BACK: Little Mister Colorado County Fair for 1994 was Trey Staff, son of Frank and Monica Staff of Nada and Little Miss was Lauren Trojacek, daughter of Gerald and Joan Trojacek of New Ulm.

LOOKING BACK: In the fall of 1993, fair association president Jerry Henneke of Cat Spring, on the right, presented past president and director T.J. Smith of Eagle Lake with a plaque for his years of service to the fair. Smith served as an active director from 1980-1993, and as an ex-officio member of the board from 1994-1996. It was Henneke's first year as president.

Thanks to the hard work of members of the 2007 Royal Court and their parents the fair association's float has been totally redesigned for the fair's 30th anniversary year. Pictured aboard the float at the 2008 Columbus FFA Parade in February are Queen Simone Petrosky, Junior Miss Taylor Dungen, Little Miss Michaela Herring and Little Mister Timothy Ulbricht.

Clayton Wallin, on the right, and Brat Woytek conducted Cowboy Church in the Eddie Orange Livestock Pavilion at last year's fair. Wallin a member of the fair's livestock committee will be in charge of the service again this year. The community is invited to come out at 10 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 14, and join in worship with other fair patrons and participants.
