Perhaps most pointedly, their femme fatales reveal the lengths to which women will go to protect their families and their dignity.

Season ticket holders pay for six performances and get the seventh ticket free—a bargain at any price.

In addition to the free show, their names will appear in the playbill, and they will have the same choice seating for each performance.

Ticket prices for each dinner/performance remain the same great value of $30 per person. Season tickets are $180 per person.

For information or to purchase tickets, call (979) 732-5135.

Separately ticketed, will be a matinee performance of "Bah Humbug" on Sunday, Dec. 7.

This production is an imaginative adaptation of Charles Dickens' timeless tale of charity, hope and compassion, but it has a unique twist.

Damian Gillen plays all the roles in the theatrical extravaganza that chronicles the story of the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge, who is challenged to open his heart after being confronted by three spirits during a one-night whirlwind journey of redemption.

The play runs 60 minutes and is supported by numerous costume changes and traditional Celtic Christmas tunes.

This show is a holiday treat that you do not want to miss. Call (979) 732-5135 for ticket information.

Colorado Youth & Family Services Receives Donation

Big news reached the membership of Columbus Christian Women's Organization last Thursday. The announcement was made that word had arrived from owners, Mike and Dorothy Wostarek that Black Creek Drilling had agreed to once again partner with organization to be the underwriter for CCWO's 5th annual fundraising event for Youth & Family Services, an agency based at 1336

Fannin in Columbus and serving Colorado, Fayette and Austin Counties.

Front Row l. to r. Dan Peavy, Executive Director of Youth & Family Services; Mike & Dorothy Wostarek, Owners Black Creek Drilling; Riana Jamison, CCWO YFS Fundraiser Chair. Behind them are other CCWO members and Black Creek Employees.

The announcement took place at St. John's Episcopal Church's Fellowship Hall in Columbus, the site of Columbus Christian Women's Organization's September meeting. The timing of this donation coincided with the meeting being the official kickoff of this year's "Trees of Light, a New Leaf" fundraising program. Special note was made to over 60 members present that this year's event was going to occur at the Stafford Opera House in Columbus Friday and Saturday, October 31 and November 1.

In addition to Black Creek Drilling (Medallion Sponsor & Event Underwriter), other sponsors who have already committed dollars to this year's project include Construction Supervisors (Medallion Sponsor), Baumgart Agency and Hill Bank of Weimar (Silver Sponsor), and Gary Braun

(Silver Sponsor), and Gary Braun
