Marquis Toliver brings in a touchdown catch.

Damien Stevens sacks the quarterback.

Chris Dorsey and Erik Gold take down the fumble.

Raiders Beat Lexington

The Raider defense stuffed Lexington on the ensuing possession, pushing them backward two yards before having to punt.

The Raiders got the ball at about midfield after a punt.

Rice moved the ball just inside the Lexington 25, but the drive sputtered and they turned the ball over on downs.

The Eagle advanced the ball near midfield, but the Raider defense held up and forced another Eagle punt.

A good return gave Rice the ball at the 45, but a fumble on fourth and inches ended the drive with a turnover on downs.

Lexington again drove the ball to about midfield, but on a third and ten play, Pettus picked off a pass attempt and returned it about 65 yards for a Raider touchdown with less than 30 seconds in the half.

Dumont made the extra point, and the Raiders took a two-touchdown lead into the half.

Lexington got the ball to start the second half. The Raiders tried an outside kick, but Lexington recovered at the 45.

On the first play, Lexington fumbled and Eric Gold recovered for the Raiders.

Rice took the ball at the Eagle 43, and on the first play, Dumont connected with Toliver for a 43-yard touchdown.

Dumont hit the extra point, and the score was 21-0, just 20 seconds into the second half.

Due to a personal foul on Lexington during the extra point, Rice had a short field to kick off and tried another inside kick. This time Rice recovered at the 22.

Rice moved the ball to the eight, but turned the ball over on a fumble.

The Raider defense stood strong again and forced a three and out.

Lexington got another unsportsmanlike penalty during the punt, and the Raiders got the ball at the Eagle 28.

Another 15-yard penalty helped Rice move the ball to the seven, then an offside penalty moved the ball inside the five.

Foster punched into the end zone with a four-yard run.

The extra point missed, and the score was 27-0 with 4:37 left in the third quarter.

Lexington moved the ball inside Raider territory with their next possession. They opted to go for it on fourth and 14, but Stevens sacked the quarterback for a 13-yard loss on the down.

Rice took over and moved the ball to the Eagle 33 after a 23-yard completion to Toliver.

Foster then ran for 15 yards to the 18. The drive stalled out, and Dumont made good on a 32-yard field goal to make the score 30-0 with 10:44 left in the contest.

That concluded scoring for the game as the Raider defense maintained the second shutout in as many games.

Other defensive standouts were: Erik Gold, 8 tackles, fumble recovery; Cody Moore, 5 tackles, sack; Chris Dorsey, 5 tackles, forced fumble.
