Little Raiders Make The Playoffs

The Rookies and varsity will be facing Lost Pines (Bastrop) Saturday, Nov. 1 for the last seasonal game. The JV had a by-week so they have two more games before the playoffs, which will be Nov. 15 in Weimar.

The Lil' Raiders organization are appreciative for the parents who stuck with them and never complaining about traveling on a weekly basis.

The Lil' Raiders records are as follows: Rookies, 5-1; JV, 4-1; and Varsity, 5-1.

This is their second year that they have had an amazing turn around.

Thanks to all.

THE REAL DONNIE DIPPEL

Professional Lobbyist Donnie Dippel

With more than 1,500 registered lobbyists in Texas, why would we elect one more to represent us?

Donnie Dippel wants you to believe he's "one of us." But lobbyists don't represent average folks—they represent a host of special interests. State lobbyist records and his own business website prove who Dippel is working for.

Donnie Dippel is a longtime professional Austin lobbyist. A hired gun, helping special interests gain favor with politicians and bureaucrats, at the expense of average citizens and taxpayers.

Campaign Finance Violator Donnie Dippel

Donnie Dippel's campaign is bankrolled by liberal special interests from big city Dallas, Austin incumbent politicians, and liberal trial lawyers.

Dippel failed to properly report an $8,642 contribution from a trial lawyer front group. Maybe he didn't want you to know about the lawsuit abusers funding his deceptive political campaign.

Ethics Fine Paying Donnie Dippel

State ethics officials noticed Dippel's campaign finance violation. Dippel retained an Austin lawyer—another Capitol insider—to get him off the hook.

The Texas Ethics Commission fined Donnie Dippel for the campaign finance violation. The Real Donnie Dippel: a professional Austin lobbyist who was fined for inaccurately reporting a major trial lawyer contribution.

DONNIE DIPPEL'S CLAM VS. THE COLD REALITY

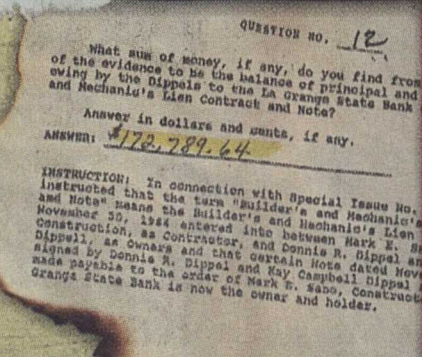

DONNIE DIPPEL
Bad For Business

DONNIE DIPPEL
Of the Special Interests, For the Special Interests

Donnie Dippel sued the La Grange State Bank for "mental anguish" and "punitive" damages after the bank tried to collect the $172,000 debt that Donnie owed to them.

A jury of Donnie's peers saw through the scheme and sided with the bank. Just ten days later, Dippel filed for bankruptcy.

Donnie Dippel sued the bank and filed bankruptcy because he was spending more than he could afford...

In uncertain times, taxpayers can't afford Donnie Dippel's record of mismanagement, irresponsibility, selfishness and bankruptcy. Taxpayers have already spent way too much to bailout bankrupt businessmen. Why elect one? We can't afford Donnie Dippel.

What would stop Donnie from raising your taxes if government spends more than it can afford?
