per game.

"They make big plays in both the running and passing games," said Dumont.

Their quarterback Aaron Hazlewood has 1,639 yards and 19 touchdowns with six interceptions on the year.

Leading rusher for the Wildcats is Broderick Jackson with 1,004 yards and nine touchdowns.

Two other running backs, LeFrederick Ford and Barry Burley have combined for 1,280 yards and 13 touchdowns on the year.

Their main two receivers are Josh Hughey with 733 yards and three touchdowns and Randy Musgrove with 679 yards and seven scores.

The Raiders will look for more solid running from Ziggy Foster, who now has over 1,800 yards and 19 touchdowns on the ground this year.

Myles Dumont will look to hook up with receivers Marques Toliver and Mario Hull to add to their combined 1,250 yards and 19 touchdowns on the season.

Dumont has thrown a total of 27 touchdowns and has 1,776 passing yards.

The Raiders will need another strong performance from their defense who has held the last two opponents to less than half their average rushing and point totals.

"They have gotten on top of teams quickly. We need to withstand their first punch and then take it to the end," said Dumont.

"We will have to be at our best," he added.
