Glueck Returns Pilots Club's Generosity

Small town non-profit organizations are well known for having an affinity for the people in their community.

They are quite capable of powering up to come to the aid of one of their own. The Pilot Club of Columbus did just that for a young woman raised in their community.

Tanya Glueck suffered a traumatic brain injury in an auto accident, which occurred in 1994. With the assistance of Pilot Club of Columbus, she was able to attend a number of camps sponsored by Pilot International.

Tanya credits these camps as an important part of her recovery. Her gratitude for this assistance runs so deep that she decided to make a very special contribution to the 2008 Holiday Extravaganza.

A wonderful community artist, Ms. Glueck drew and painted a watercolor entitled "LAVABO". Her painting will be in a drawing during the Holiday Extravaganza set for December 13 at the Veterans' Community Center here in Columbus.

Glueck's intent is to be an integral part of the recovery of a traumatic brain injury victim. Funds from the drawing of her painting will support traumatic brain injury camps sponsored by Pilot International.

Tickets for the watercolor may be purchased from any Pilot Club member. They are available for $5 or $1 each.

Or, interested parties may contact Carol Braden for tickets and more information about the artist and painting.

Extravaganza doors open for holiday shopping at 9 a.m. and will close at 4 p.m. on Dec. 13. The public is urged to support this worthwhile event.

The Pilot Club of Columbus is a local non-profit organization serving Columbus and surrounding areas. Service projects include support of traumatic brain injury camps, LIFELINE and scholarships to high school seniors.

Business partners assisting with this venture are B&D Services, Delgado Wrecker Service, First State Bank of Columbus, Columbus State Bank, Shades of Summer, Industry State Bank-New Ulm Branch and Donald and Marie Hayek.

Tanya Glueck, a member of the Pilot Club of Columbus, had a traumatic brain injury in October of 1994 due to a car accident. You will recognize her as the always friendly hostess at Schobel's Restaurant, interacting with many people. The Pilot Club has been instrumental in helping Tanya and other persons with brain injuries to be able to attend various camps. Tanya drew and painted a watercolor entitled "LAVABO" hoping to raise money for Traumatic Brain Injury camps sponsored by Pilot International. Tickets are 6 for $5 or $1 each and may be purchased from any Pilot Club member. The drawing for the watercolor will be on December 13 at the Pilot Club Extravaganza at the Veterans Community Center. For more information, contact Carol Braden at 979-732-3252.

Blinn Offering Quick Books Course

High turnout for the December QuickBooks workshop prompted the Small Business Development Center at Blinn College to offer the course again in January.

The two-night, basic level, hands-on workshop in the use of QuickBooks 2009 accounting software will be on Jan. 6 and 8.

The class will meet 6-9:30 p.m. in the Bullock Building, Room 121, on the Brenham campus.

Course topics will include setting up your company from scratch, budgeting, financial reporting, controlling inventory, charting accounts, and bank and credit card account reconciliation.

The instructor is Shirley Beum of Seidel Schroeder & Co. of Brenham, a certified QuickBooks instructor.

The cost is $60. Pre-registration is required, and there is a $10 discount when paid before Jan. 6.

To register or to get more information, call 979-830-4137, 979-627-7560, or email carol.doersom@blinn.edu.

The SBDC at Blinn College is a business consulting and training center that is part of the University of Houston Small Business Development Center Network, which serves 32 counties in Southeast Texas.

The center provides free one-on-one consulting and low-cost training seminars.

The center at Blinn College serves Austin, Colorado, and Washington counties.
