From Miss Pratt
How are your reindeer? How are your elves? Santa, My students have been very busy at school preparing letters, and making art projects just for you! They are all doing an awesome job in learning and their behaviors are improving. Please look over their Christmas list very carefully and grant them a wish. Santa, we know you are very busy, but if you find the time can you PLEASE write them back?
Thanks,
Miss Pratt

From Santa Claus
Merry Christmas! Little children, From my home so far away Send I loving Christmas greetings to you on your holiday.

You may watch and wait till midnight,
Looking at the falling snow,
But be sure you won't discover When I come or when I go.
For I come when all is silent,
Not a breath will then be heard,

And I softly through the chimney
Enter, saying not a word Quickly to the stockings step I,
And I place in every one Something for the Christmas frolic,

Something for the Christmas fun.
Hark! My reindeer out the window,
Prance and shake a warning note,
Santa Claus will speed away then,
Wrapping close his cap and coat.

Your surprise, when comes the morning,
Gladness which your bright eyes tell,
Grateful, merry, happy children,
Pleases Santa Claus full well.

De'Ondre, Arieana, Sarriah, Marcus, Joshua, Jahaven, Alaiyza, Emily, Christmas greetings now I send.
Carlos, Ethan, Mason, Devan, Sir, Krista, Denim, Sean, Franklin, Megan
