Opera House Holding Dinner Theatre

Jeryl Hoover returns to the Stafford Opera House on Saturday, April 11, for another outstanding musical evening. Dinner Theatre goes in this area will remember his wonderful baritone voice singing many well loved hits from Broadway shows, longtime favorites and "songs he learned from his father".

Hoover is a performer, musician, writer, composer, husband, father and father-in-law. He was born and raised in Odessa. He earned a Bachelor and Masters degree in Voice Performance from West Texas State University a Bachelor of Arts from University of Texas Permian Basin, and a Doctor of Musical Arts from Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth.

He served four churches from 1981 to 1996, primarily in Austin, then moved to Fredericksburg in 1996 to seek a slower pace of life and to provide a safer and more congenial place for their sons to finish growing up. He founded and is now the President of the Board of Fredericksburg Theatre Company, a locally funded organization that produces 6 productions of theatre classics per year. FTC is now in its 12th season.

Jeryl was elected Mayor of Fredericksburg in 2006 and again in 2008. He is married to Ruthann, an Instructor of Nursing with Austin Community College, and they have three grown sons and one daughter-in-law.

This will be his fifth appearance at the Stafford Opera House in Columbus singing to a "Sold Out" house each time. Tickets for his performance are still available at $30 each which, includes social hour at 5:30 p.m., dinner at 6:30 p.m., and the performance at 7:30 p.m. For more information, please call 979-732-5135 or e-mail us at staffordoperahouse@yahoo.com.
