Alan Arellano returns a shot during the district tennis tournament last week.

Arellano Finishes Fourth At District Tennis

Arellano placed fourth in the District 26AA Tennis Meet held at George Junior High in Rosenberg on April 6 and 8.

He defeated Daniel Johnston of East Bernard, 6-1, 6-1 in the first round. Arellano then played in a long tough match against Brandon Witte of Brazos who would eventually place second in the district tourney.

Arellano lost the match 5-7, 6-4, 3-6 to wind up in the third place game. Camp Dozier of Hallettsville then handed Arellano his 2nd loss by a 1-6, 2-6 score and Arellano settled for the fourth place finish.

Kelsey Danklefs and Jordyn Pausewang placed third at the J.V. District Tennis Meet held in Rosenberg on Monday, April 6 in girls doubles.

They began the day by defeating Hayes/Potts of East Bernard by an 8-3 margin.

Next they beat Phelps/Koenig of Weimar, 8-4 to reach the semi-finals before suffering their only loss of the tourney.

Emmons/Boggs of Brazos defeated them by a 5-8 score. Danklefs/Pausewang bounced back to win third place by defeating Hurst/Marik of East Bernard, 8-4.

Also competing in girls doubles were Georgeanne Lanes and Anna McConnell who lost in the first round in a very competitive match against Hurst/Marik of East Bernard. They lost the match by a 6-8 margin.

The J.V. Division also had two entries from Rice in boy's singles. Brian Labay lost to Eric Riley of East Bernard by a 2-8 score.

Brian Kallina lost to Trevor McGee of Hallettsville by a 2-8 margin.
