

Eagle Lake Class Of 1939 Holds Reunion

Surviving members of the Eagle Lake High School of 1939 met for their 70th anniversary reunion on Wednesday, April 22 at the Texas Seafood and Steak Restaurant here in Eagle Lake.

Only eight remain from the 32-member class and six were on hand for the festivities. Besides an afternoon meal, the group spent time renewing old acquaintances, sharing stories from days gone by and heard individual reports of activities in each of the classmates lives.

Attending were Henrietta Balusek Lockwood of Katy along with her daughter-in-law, Francie Lockwood; William "Pete" Glaiser of La Grange; Allen Gueck of Sealy and his wife, Lillian; Grace Reed Tally Redifer of Sugar Land; Grover Sundberg of Alba, Texas and his wife Hallie; and Evelyn Waddell Walsh of Houston.

The other two survivors of the class, Fred Frnka of Eagle Lake and Gloria Tilson of Rosenberg, were unable to attend.

A special guest at the event was W.J. "Ted" Brunner of Eagle Lake who was a faculty member and class sponsor of the '39ers. He was presented a Certificate of Appreciation by Evelyn on behalf of the classmates recognizing his longtime leadership and friendship and in honor of his 98th birthday on April 13.

At the conclusion of the reunion, Evelyn and Grace presented each class member with a personalized engraved memorial paperweight to commemorate the historical gathering of the Class of 1939.

Gadabouts Hold Monthly Meeting April 16

By Catherine Berger
The beautiful and tranquil floral gardens at the home of John and Susan Stacy in Garwood were the setting for the April 16 meeting of the Nada/Garwood Gadabouts.

President Anita Meisner opened the meeting and welcomed members and guests, Colorado County AgriLife Extension Agent Janis Pfeffer, and Virginia Martinez. The Club prayer and pledge to the flag was led by vice president Minnie Lee Conner. Secretary Catherine Berger called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Treasurer Helen Noteboom gave the treasurer's report.

Correspondence: Catherine read a thank you note from Minnie Lee Conner.

Anita gave an oral thank you from Dianne Smidovec and LaJuan Braden also thanked the group for their cards and prayers.

Hospitality: Anita reported get-well cards were sent to Janice Phillips, Agnes Labay, Gladys Tyler and Edith Driik. A birthday card was sent to Irene Skuca. Clara Gold asked for prayers for her granddaughter and great-grandson.

Gardening: The gardens are planted and some of the crops are coming up, but still need rain.

Unfinished Business: Recipients have been selected to receive the scholarships-$100 to each one. The scholarships will be presented at the Academic Banquet to be held in May at Rice High School.

Members were reminded of the April 27 deadline for purchasing meal tickets for the Older Texan Fair, which will be held on May 6th at the Sheridan Community Center in Sheridan. Members were also reminded to bring items for the door prize and also to bring silent auction items. Master gardeners Wayne and Wanda Brown will present the program.

The Kindergarten party will be held on May 8 at the Garwood Fire Department meeting room. It was noted that there would be 20 kindergarten students attending.

New Business: Extension Agent Janis Pfeffer announced that April 20-24 has been designated as National Volunteers Week and she thanked the members for their hours of volunteering. Pfeffer further stated that May is Older Texas Seniors Month and a proclamation will be signed by Colorado County Judge Al Jamison on April 27 to signify Older Texan Month in Colorado County and encouraged members to attend this signing. Pfeffer also spoke on the Multi-County Child Care Conference, which was attended by 173 child care providers. She stated that childcare workers are required to attend these conferences to earn Continuing Education Credits.

An Estate Essentials Planning

workshop has been calendared for April 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the Nada Parish Hall. Elder law specialist Kimberly Hegwood of Hegwood Associates Law Firm of Houston will present the program. The public is invited to this important, free workshop.

The Gadabouts Mother's Day luncheon will be May 21 at 11 a.m. at Helen Noteboom's home.

Catherine Berger presented cell phone information entitled ICE, which stands for "In Case of Emergency" and everyone should have "ICE" plus an emergency number saved in their cell phones.

Announcements: The Veterans Day luncheon is scheduled for June 18 at the Nada Parish Hall.

April 29 from 2 to 4:30 is senior citizen domino party to be held at
