Weimar Museum To Host German Exhibit

Lone Star and Eagle, a Humanities Texas exhibit, featuring the German immigration to Texas, opens Saturday, May 2 at the Heritage Society Museum of Weimar. The exhibit will remain at the museum through Saturday, May 30.

Humanities Texas is a state program of the National Endowment for the Humanities Traveling exhibits throughout the country are made possible through "We The People", an initiative designed to strengthen the teaching, study, and understanding of American history and culture.

The Goethe-Institut, a German organization for the promotion of international cultural cooperation, contributed to this project to honor German Texans. According to material provided by the Goethe-Institut and Humanities Texas, "The Germans have been one of the most effective ethnic groups at blending into the American mainstream. In fact, the casual observer of Texan events might never realize the German Texans are here, nor when they came, and how they loved." Lone Star and Eagle provides the answers.

Visit the museum, located at 125 E. Main Street in Weimar, during regular hours: 2-4 p.m. on Wednesdays and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays. Special hours are available for school and organization tours and for study groups. Please call Karen Beken at 979-725-8535 for further information and to make arrangements for your visit.
